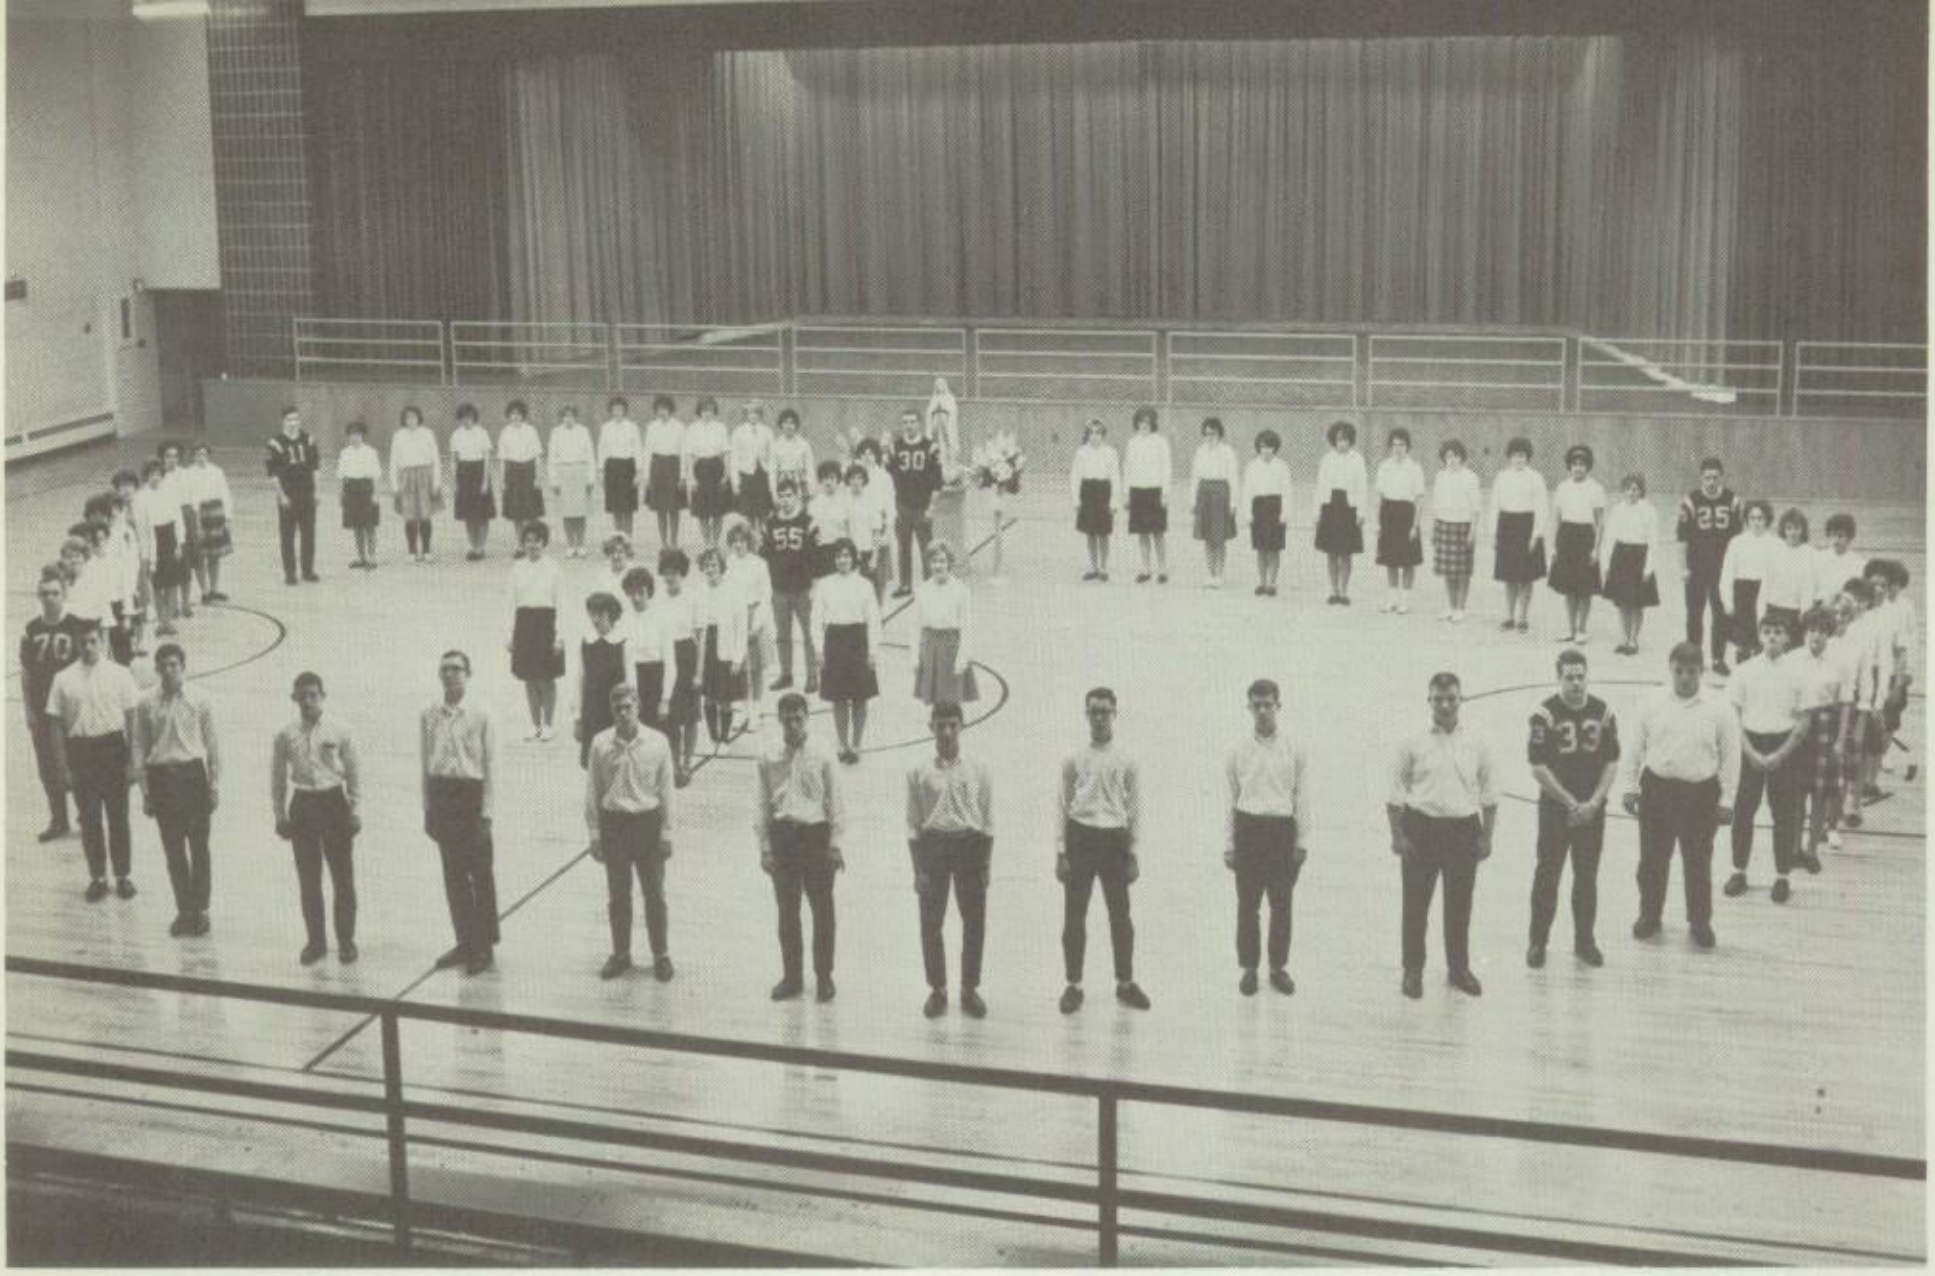
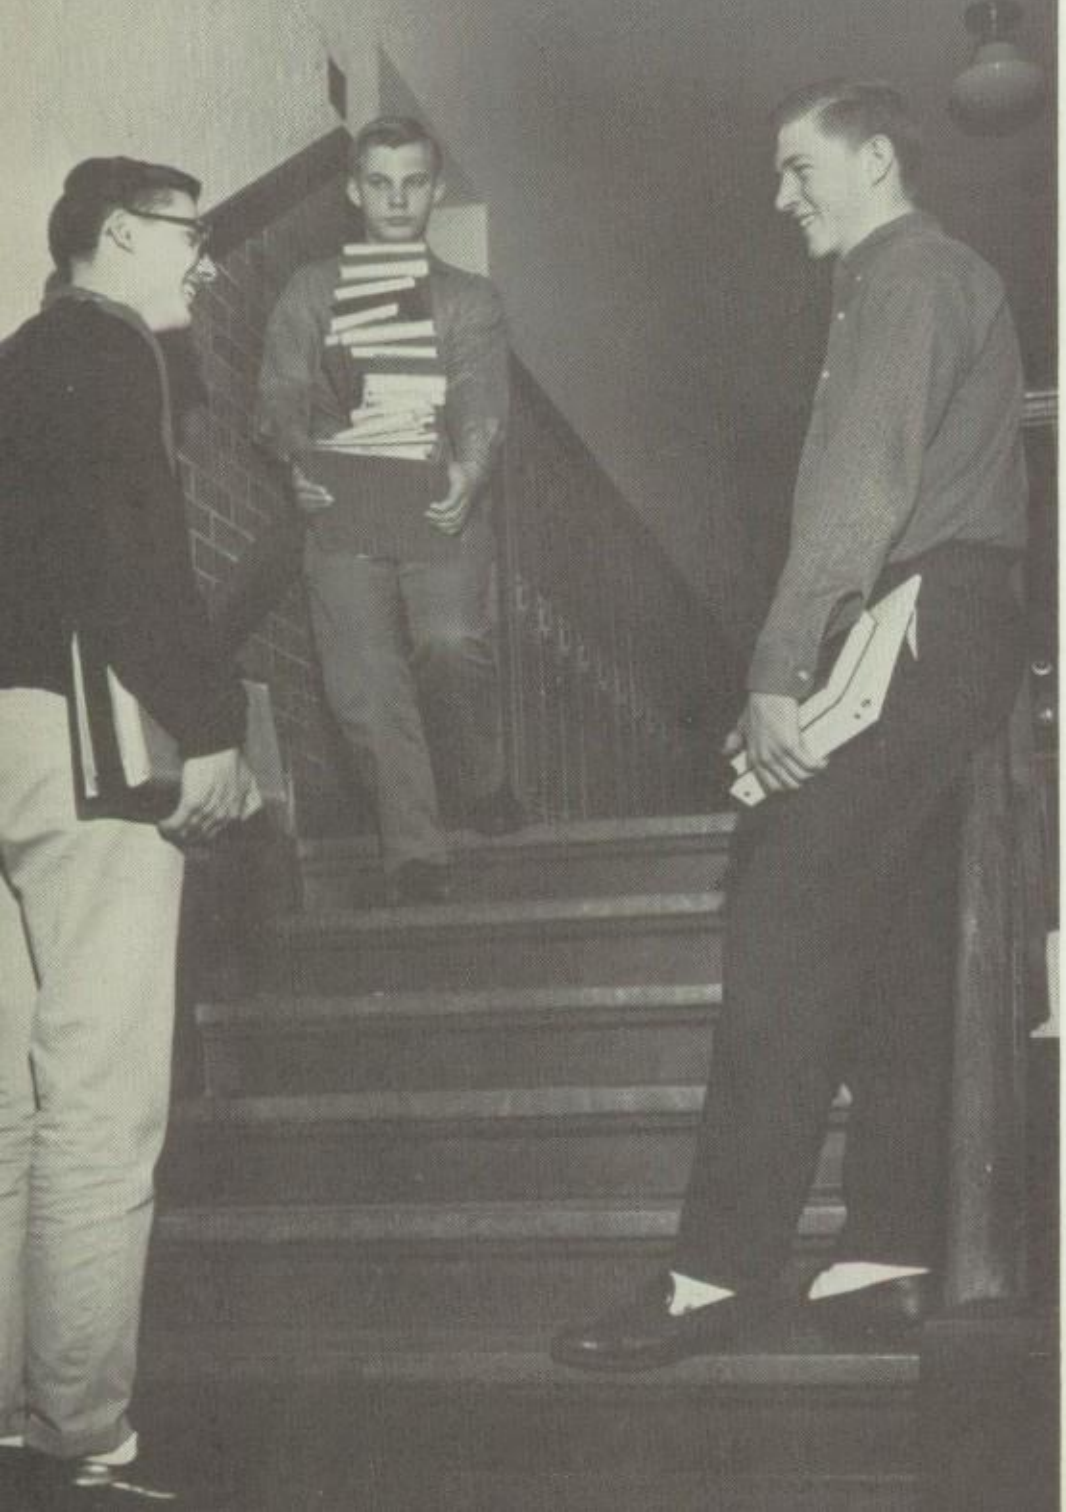
Volume 35, 1963

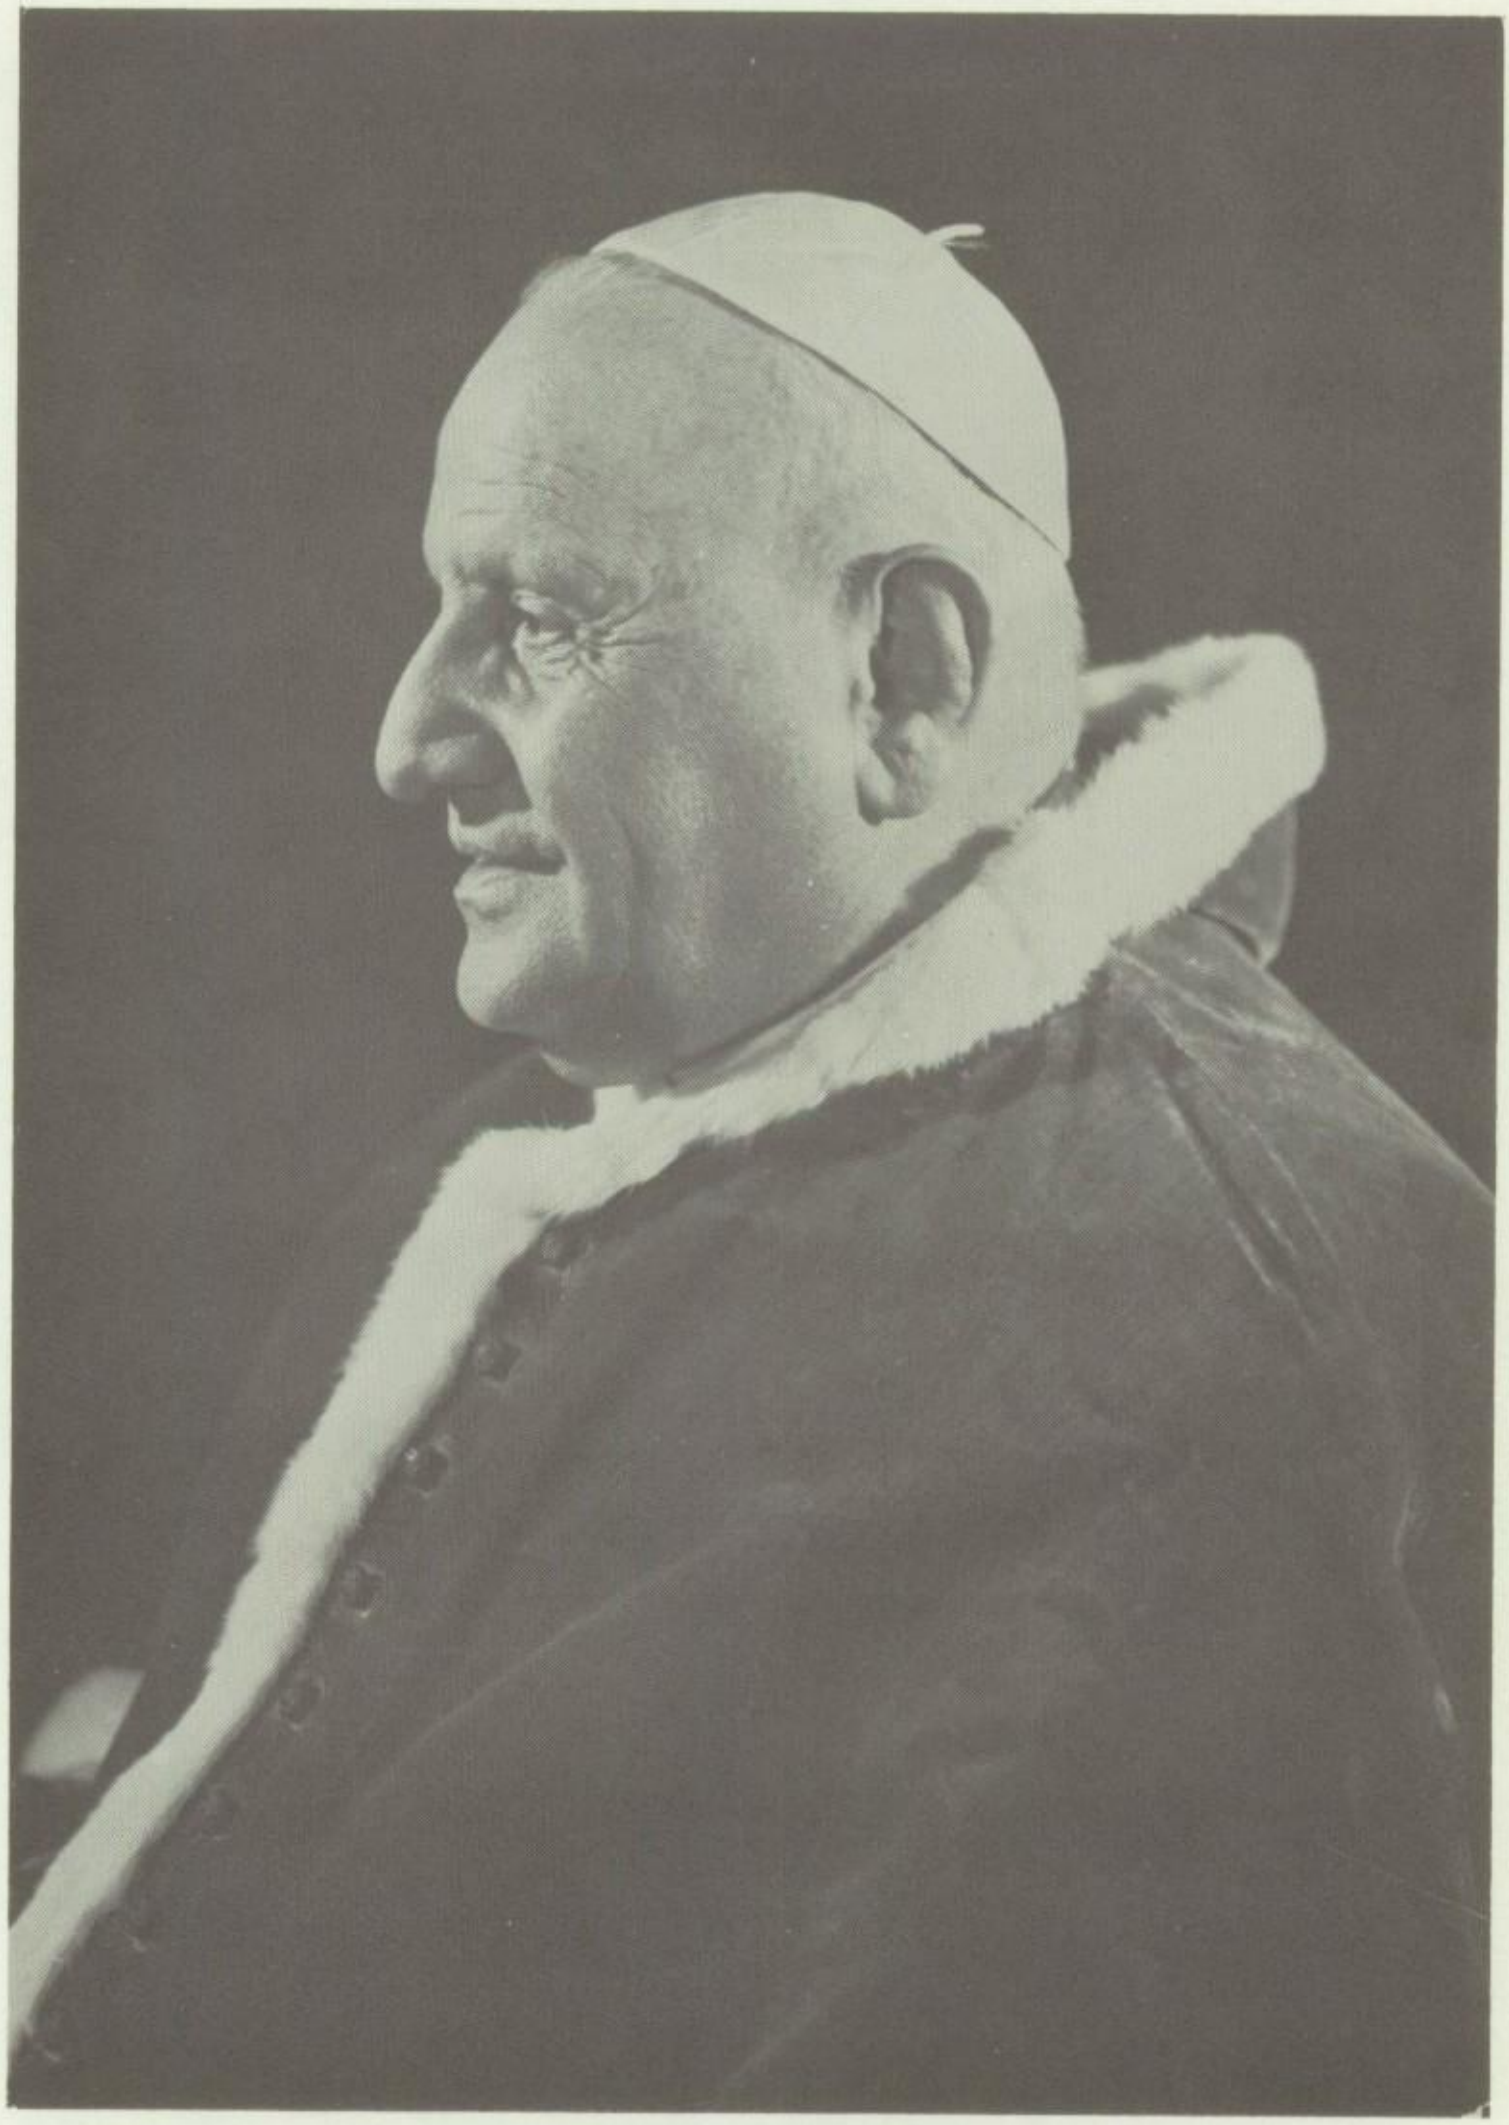




"Tradition Prevails" is the theme as we take you through the year 1962-1963. One of the more impressive activities in the 1962-1963 school year was the Living Rosary made up of members of the Sodality, football team and the cheerleaders. It is hoped that the Living Rosary will be established as a tradition at Saint Wendelin in coming years since it in itself ties together the motives of our education: love and praise of God, school unity and the developing of our interests and of our intellects.

The stairs to and from study hall are usually filled with a variety of students ranging from the serious to the not so serious. If the amount of books a student carries classifies him, then it must be that John Carrel is intent on making either the honor roll or, if not that, maybe the football team. On the other hand, Chuck Hagenmaier and Tom Holman have the philosophy that a great amount of knowledge can come from a small amount of books.

Shepherd of His Flock



HIS HOLINESS POPE JOHN XXIII

Pope John XXIII designated 1962-1963 to be the year in which the only Ecumenical Council of our times should be held. There, further measures were invoked in order to lead his flock, and that of Christ's, to eternal salvation and happiness with God.

Our Representative at the Ecumenical Council

THE MOST REVEREND GEORGE J. REHRING, S.T.D.
Bishop of Toledo

The Most Reverend George J. Rehring, as bishop of Toledo attended the Ecumenical Council called by Pope John XXIII in Rome. It was one of the privileges and duties familiar to him as administrator of our Toledo diocese.

Promoters of Education

We have indeed been blessed again this year with a very able faculty. Such a faculty as is Saint Wendelin's is truly an outstanding example of today's educators and leaders of youth. They have devoted their lives for the purpose of passing on to the students all they have learned not only from books but also the knowledge they have gained through experience.

Seniors and Tradition

Seniors have traditionally been thought of as leaders of the school. For the past twelve years our vocation has been that of a student. Now we face a new life. Some will continue this life of a student, others will face the demanding business world. Still others will join the navy, army, marines, or air force. Others will seek employment here or in other cities, but all of us will come face to face with reality and the adult world.

Our basic purpose in life, that of doing the will of God, will not change; but we will be doing it by a different means. Gaining that means and attaining our goals will be our ultimate success when we are recognized as adults.

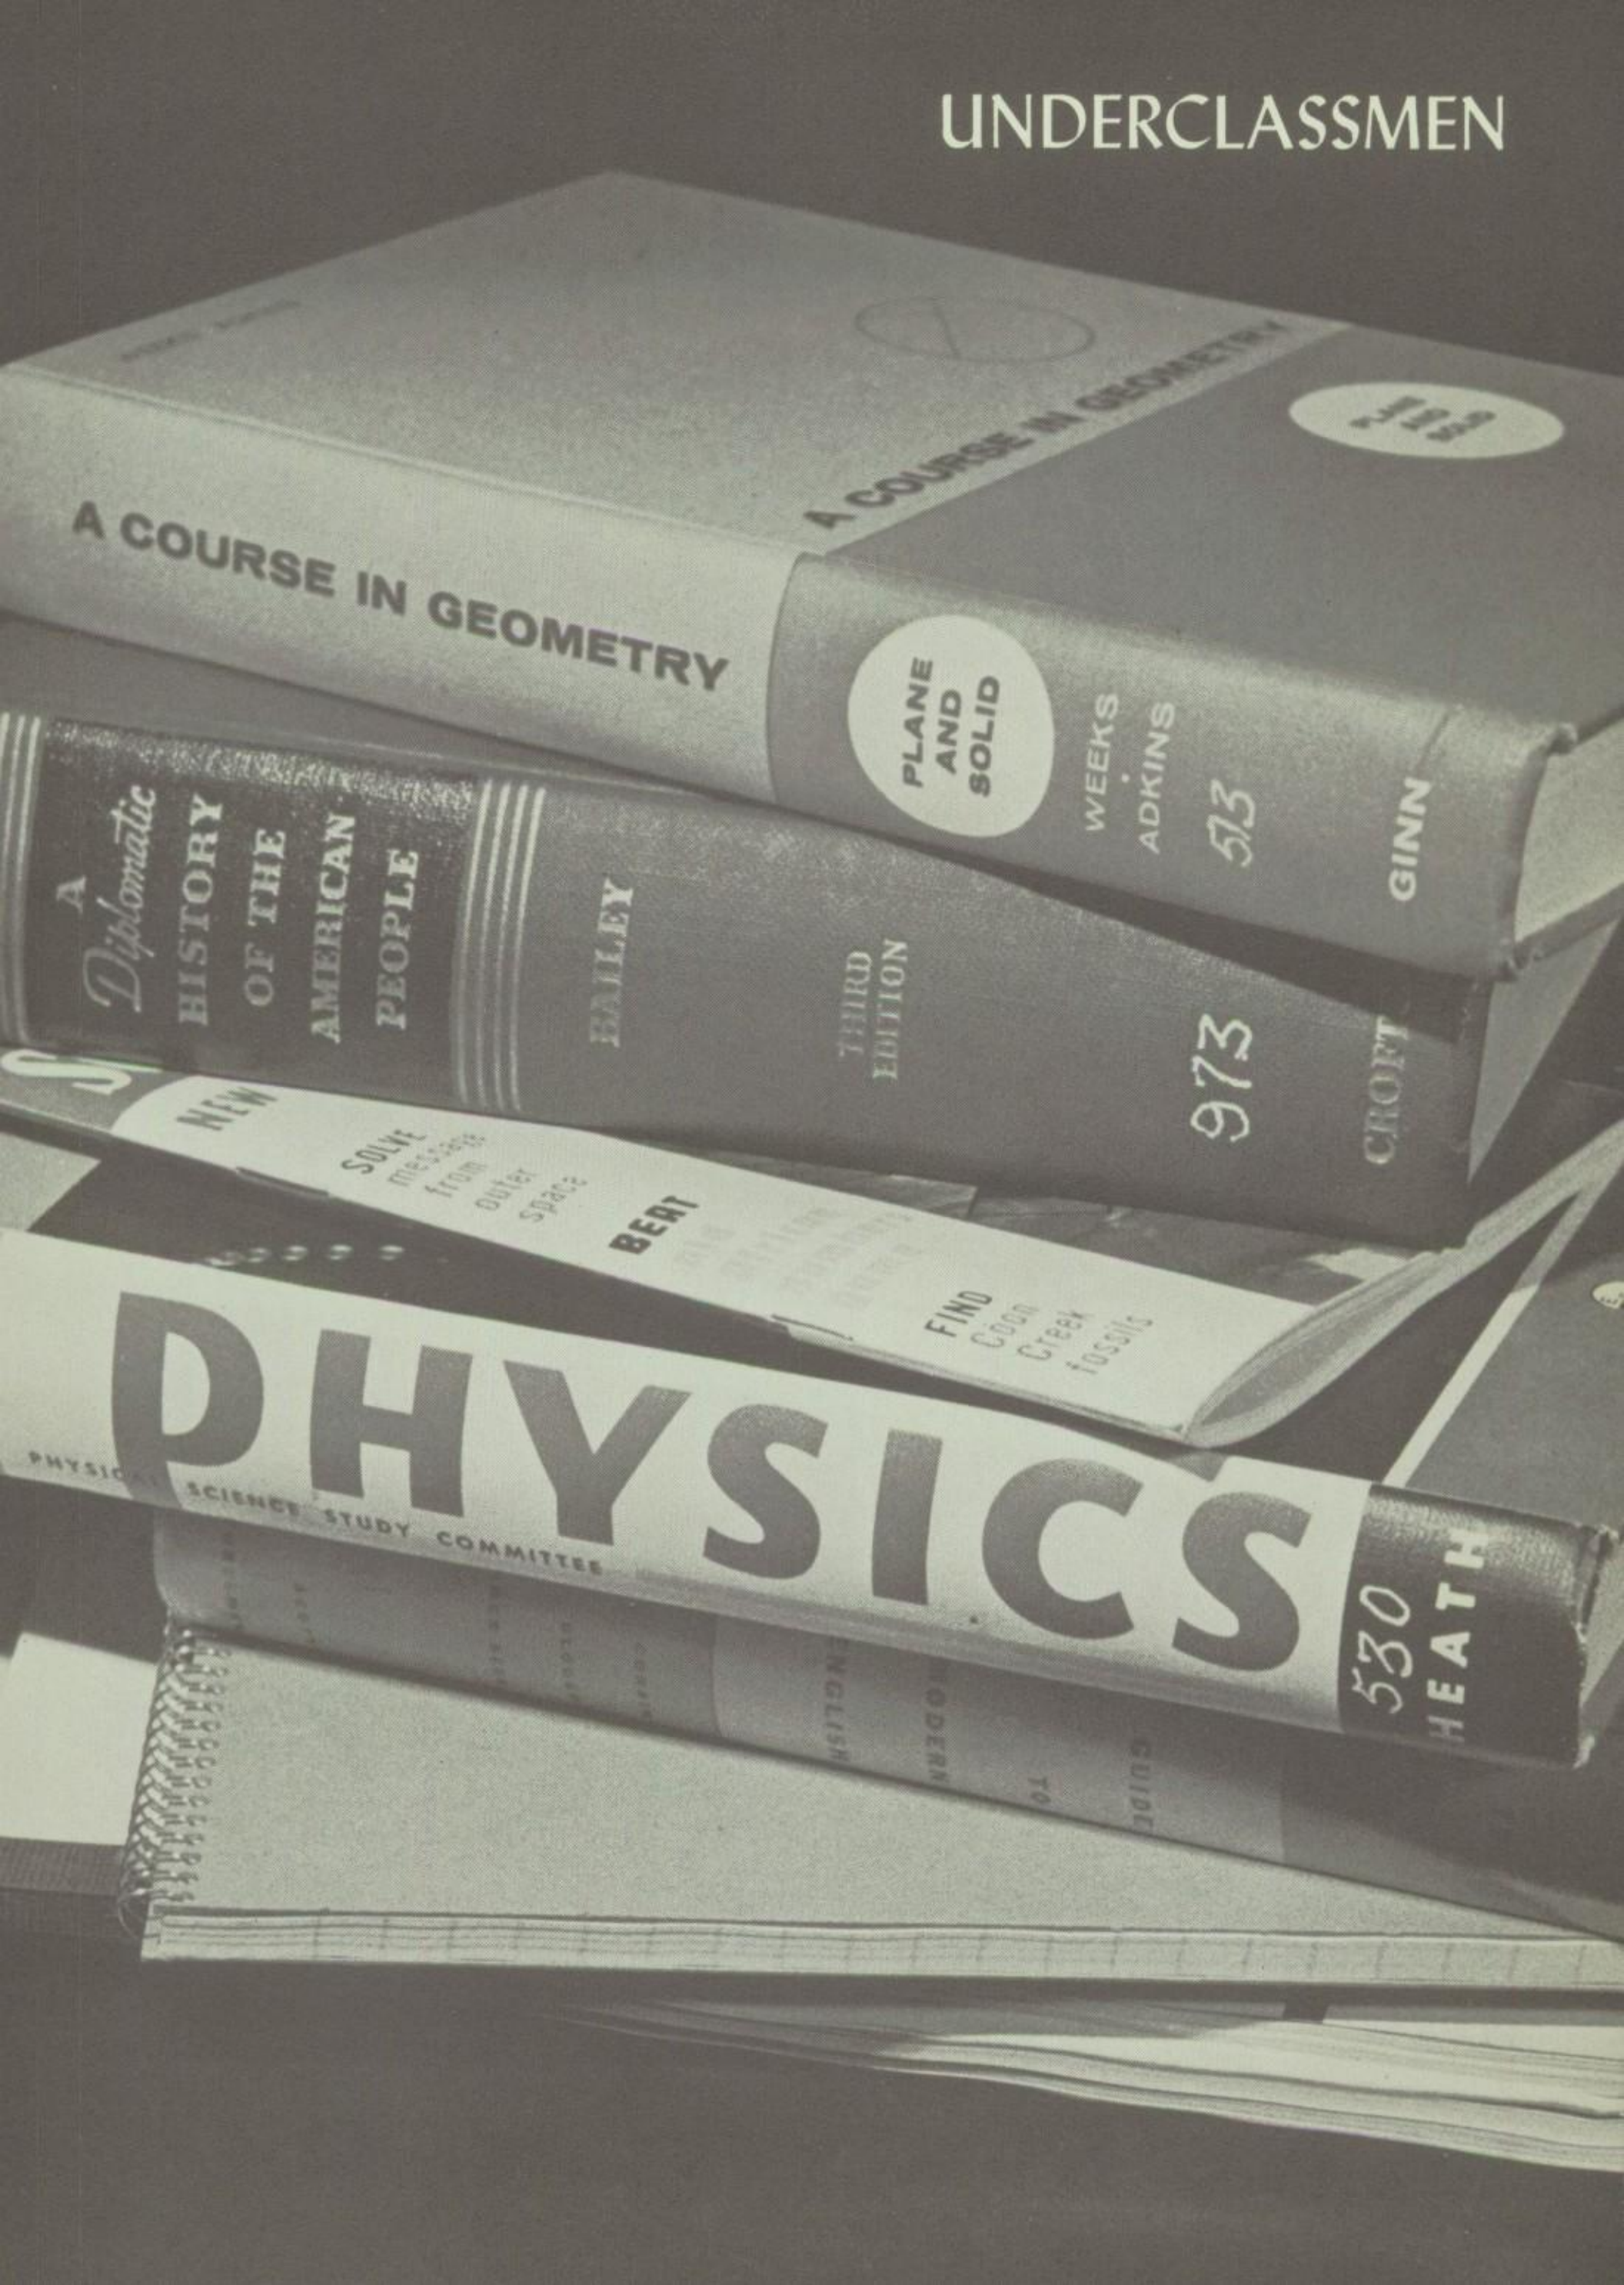
UNDERCLASSMEN



Juniors, Different yet the Same

The junior class officers are: Gerry Allis, Vice President; Jane Kinn, Secretary; Stu King, Treasurer; and Tom Schetter, President.

A new class moves in every year, but the year itself is still the same as always. The junior year is a busy, hectic year. There is much work to be done; for on the juniors fall the responsibilities of organizing the Christmas dance, and the junior-senior social event. Most important in the life of each junior is, however, the personal decision each should start to make concerning his own future.

Freshmen with a Future

With the prospect of four years of high school ahead of them, the freshmen set off to do their best. The whole school was improved by their presence, as some of the older hands who had gotten in the rut of school routine were forced to liven up, at least enough to save themselves from freshmen stampeding down the hall.

This freshman class was especially famous for their ability to sing. Under the able direction of Mr. Wasserman, they filled the chapel with resounding praises every Monday. The standard of chapel singing for the whole school was raised as a result of their example.

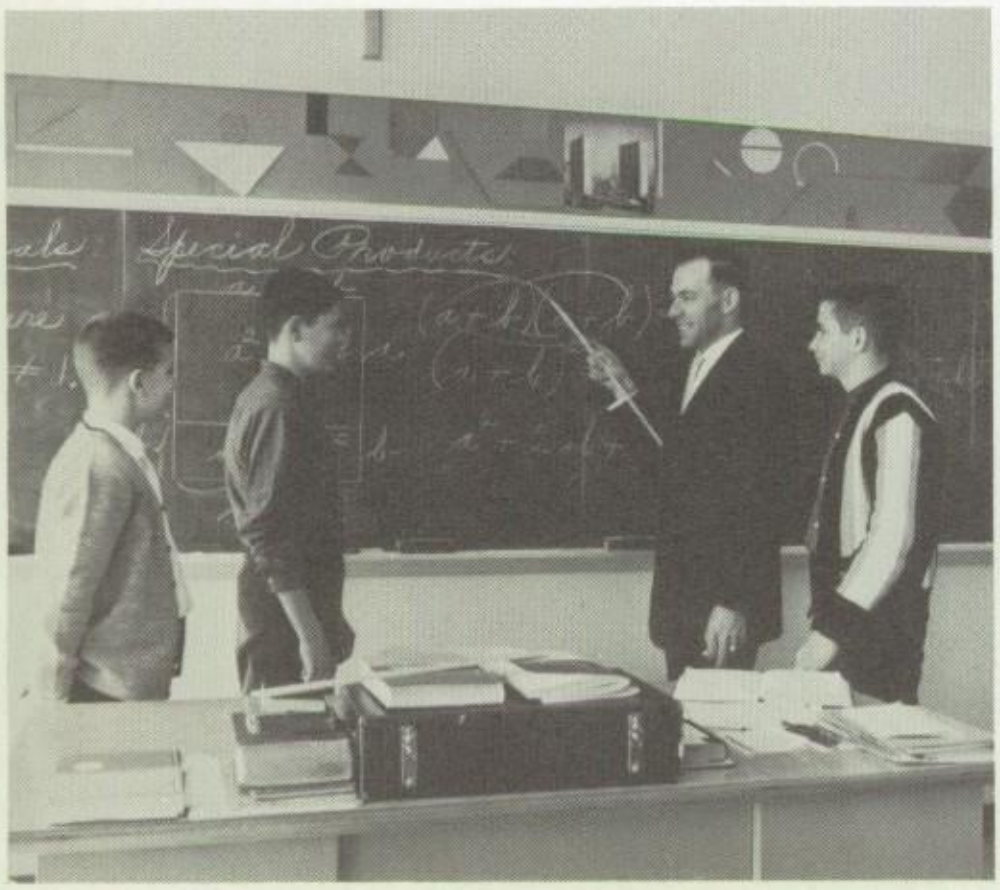
ACADEMICS

Freshmen develop Body, Mind, and Spirit

A structure as complex as a human personality can function properly only if it is soundly based. As freshmen, students begin the process of shaping their lives and personalities. Their future will depend on how solid a foundation they lay for themselves at this time.

The opportunities for foundation-laying available to this year's freshman class are many. They are among the first to enjoy the benefits of new athletic and academic facilities at St. Wendelin's and they have a host of spiritual and social activities waiting for them. These, coupled with the high degree of scholastic excellence maintained at Saint Wendelin's, provide, for those who want it, the soundest possible base for building toward a bright future.

Everyone loves the "tramp," and expert Sandie Bryant displays championship form as Julie Meyers, Georgia Buchman, Ester Rumschlag, Kathy Herrig, Chris Hanson, Kathy Bennett, Kathy Sertell, Susan Cooper, Helen Mendoza, Kathy McDermott, Debbie Karg, Claudia Haslinger, Millie Estrada, Kathy Walters, Sigrun Eckl, Pat Smith, Martha Delgado, Kathy Herman, Linda Wade, Kathy Lord look on in envy.



Mr. Wasserman seems terribly pleased with the progress of his first year algebra students. John Keibel, Tom Baker, and Jim Clouse demonstrate their remarkable intelligence at the board.

Dick Borer, Dottie Frankart, Marcia Frisch, Bob Gehring, and Mike Kauffman check their maps as Kathy Herrig points out Rome on the larger map in Ancient History.

Mr. Herman cracks another one of his famous jokes during General Science class. There is one mystery. Are the students laughing because the joke is funny or because their grades are in danger? Students enjoying the joke are Dave Hammer, Julia Ann Myers, Ernie Haaser, Helen Mendoza, Rex Speelman, Jim Wolph, and Dave Weimerskirch.

Mr. Herman checks the work of Sigrun Eckl and Joe Frias at the board in Advanced Math, while Helen Mendoza, Duane Montgomery, Tom Gillig, Jane Haubert, and Tom Holman sit in deep contemplation of the problems. Everyone seems to be concentrating on these numerical questions, but the photographer tells us that as he tip-toed from the room he heard Mr. Herman say in a very authoritative voice, "All right, let's erase that stuff on the board and get down to work!"

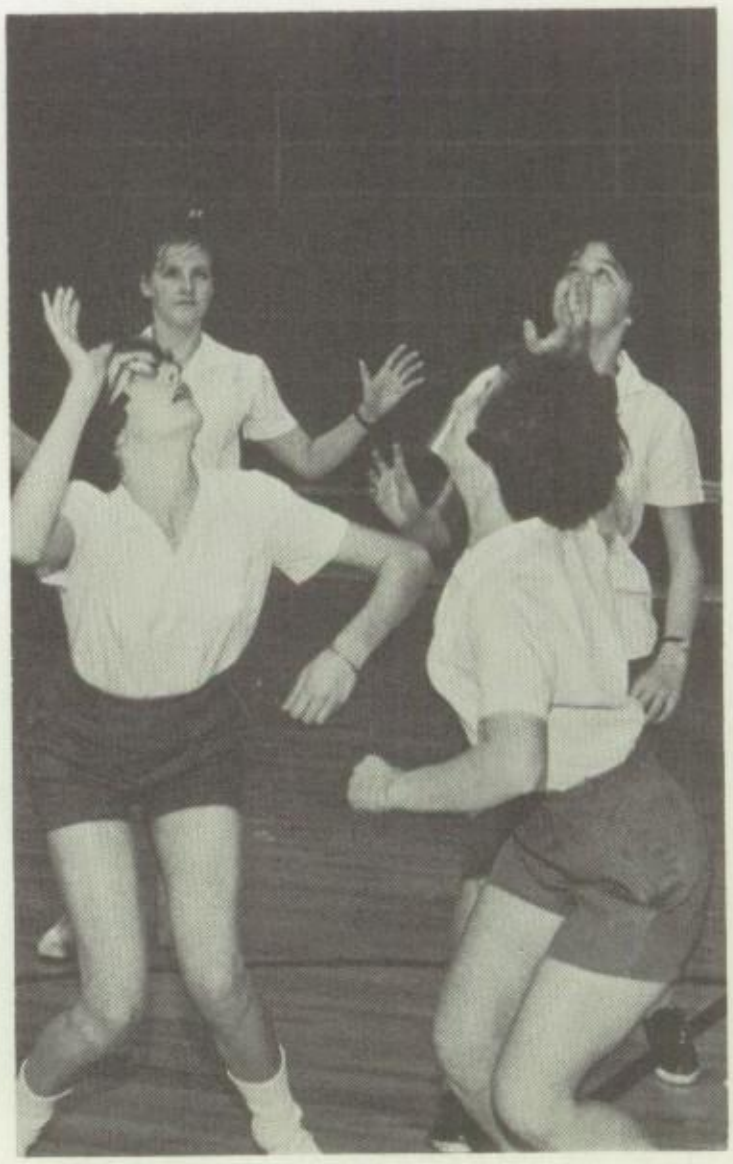
Freshmen Dave Hammer, Bill Holman, Jackie Johnson, Dolores Logsdon, Barbara Seel, and Duane Montgomery seem puzzled as Mr. Pocs assigns a spur-of-the-moment theme in English I.

Well if it isn't Ben Hur and Shebal The Latin I class was honored by a visit from these two well known people in the persons of Mary Jane Schreiner and Greg Kauffman.

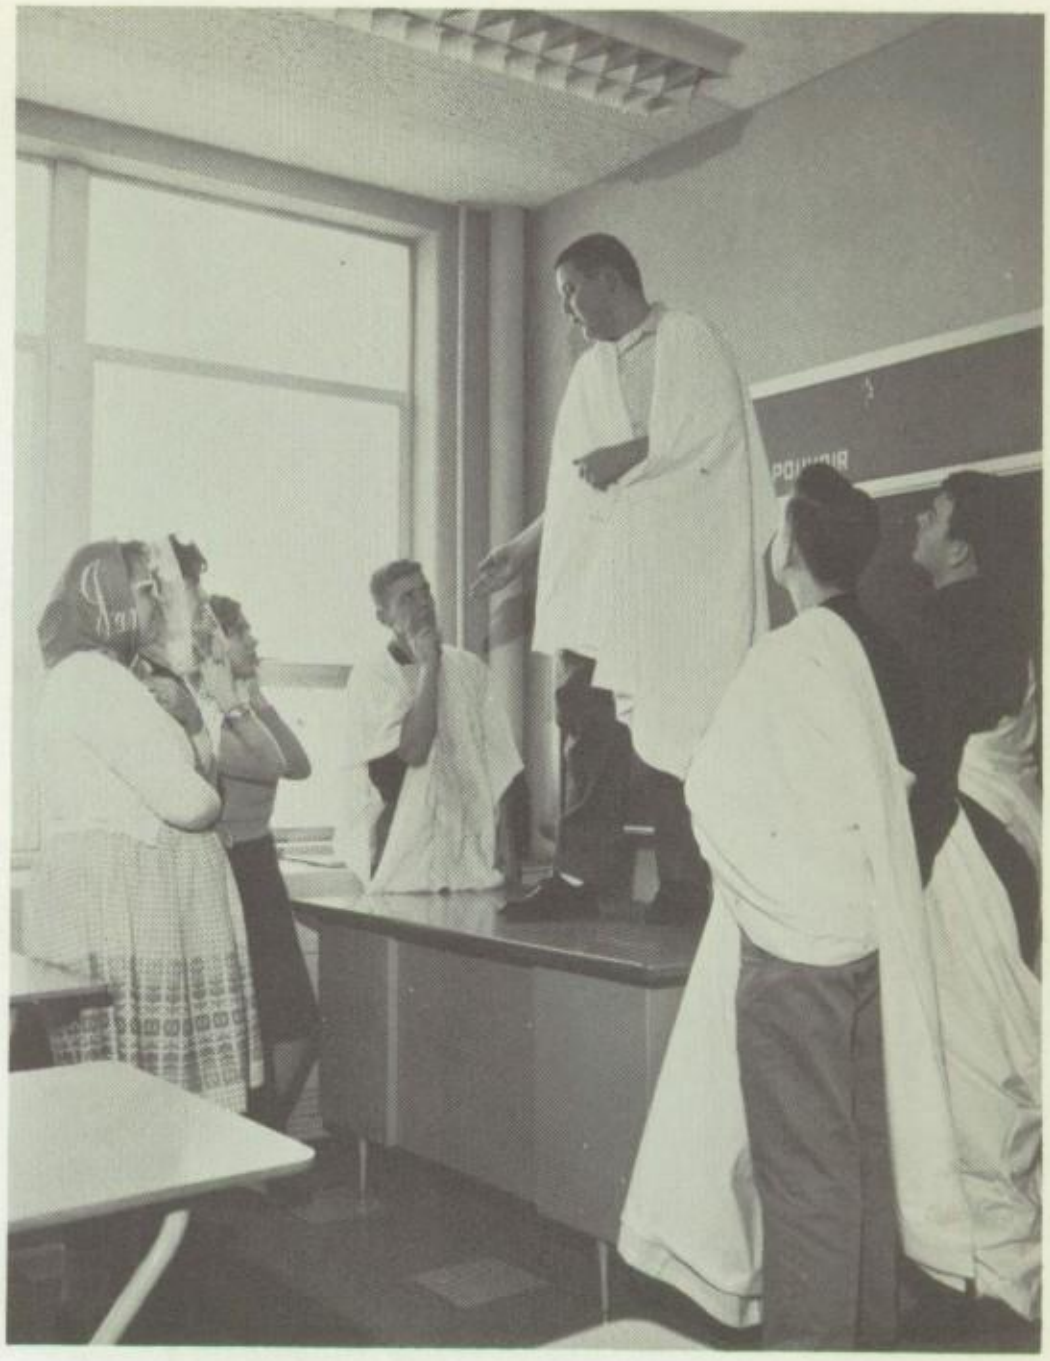
Linda Wade apparently thinks that "vert" contains an "A". Helping Linda complete the French stop light is Claudia Haslinger. Both girls are students of Sister Giovanni's first year French class.



Waiting to go up for an important jump shot are Dottie Frankart and Marcia Frisch in freshmen girls' gym class. Roxanne Clark and Kathy Herrig eagerly await the outcome.

The second year is different

The second year of student life is filled with newly assumed responsibilities. The time for taking life easy is over. The time has come to achieve a more intellectual philosophy of student behavior and of student life. Truly, the second year is the year when a student begins to walk on his own two feet.

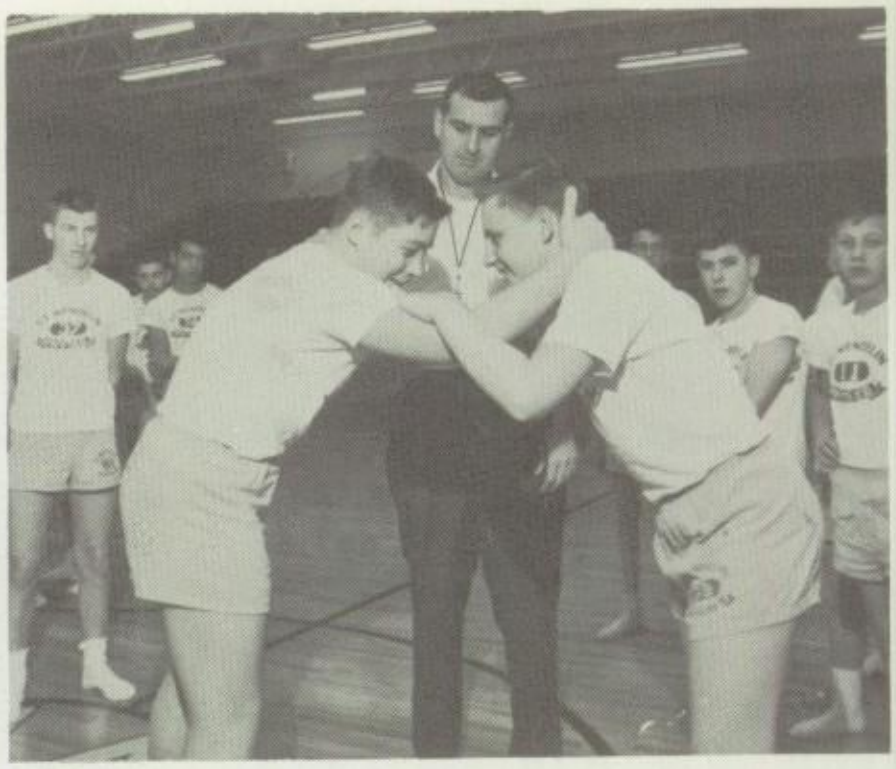


"Rome Revisited" is the title of this group scene. A thorough study of the faces though leads us to believe that these are no ordinary thespians, these are the illustrious sophomores! Looking down on the group from his lofty position is Steve Emerine as he begins his oration. The commoners are portrayed by (Left to right): George Welly, Sharon Ferguson, Lois McDermott, Patti Holman, Ronnie Williams, and Gary Reens.

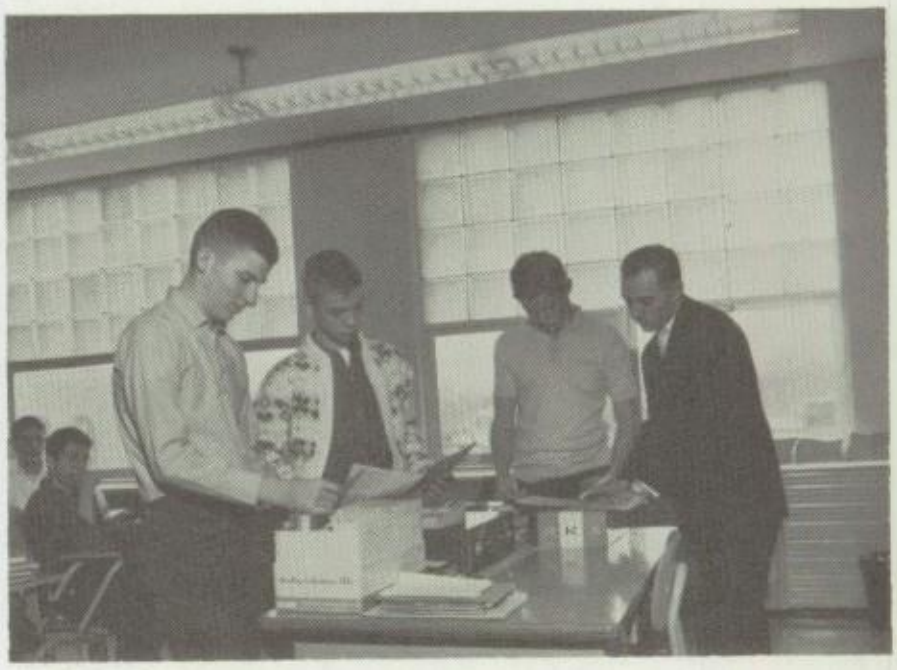
"What in heaven's name is it?" asks Mary Ann Lowery as Mr. Jacques shows a prize skeleton to biology students: Sue Hammer, Paul Durnwald, and Bob Robarge.

Mr. Wasserman explains away the mysteries of first term geometry as Chris Myers and Donna Haslinger listen attentively. Terry Lord and Fred Ziegman are interested onlookers.

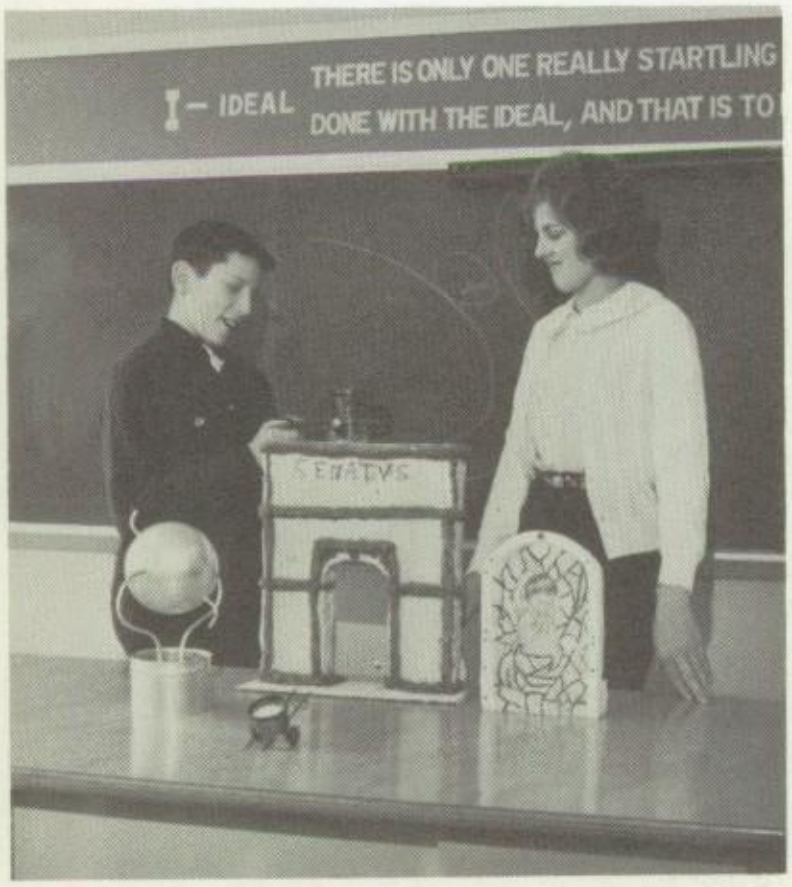
Sophomore girls play a little "soft ball" under the direction of Mrs. Herman. Marty Schroeder, and Connie Brickner are trying to help the unidentified lass, who a moment after this picture was snapped, was squashed to death.



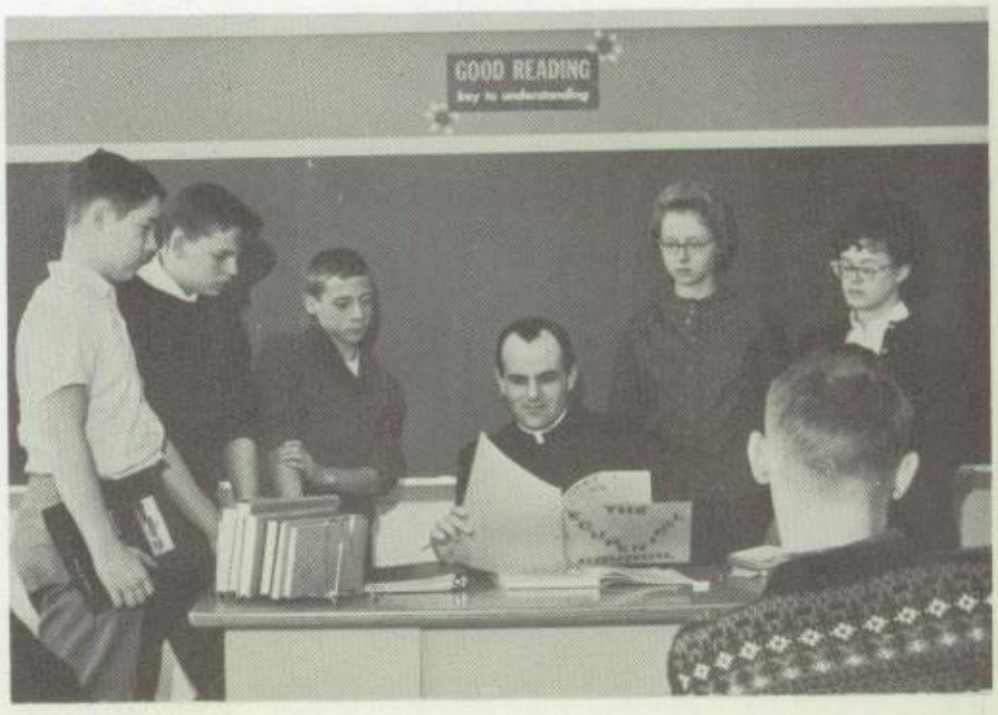
Mike Etchen and Ron Williams are becoming acquainted with the "referee's standing position" in wrestling, and they seem to be very happy to be doing so. Onlookers are: Dan Jurrus, Paul Durnwald, Alfred Mendoza, Mr. Jacques, Larry Holman, Jim Burkart, and Tom Boff.



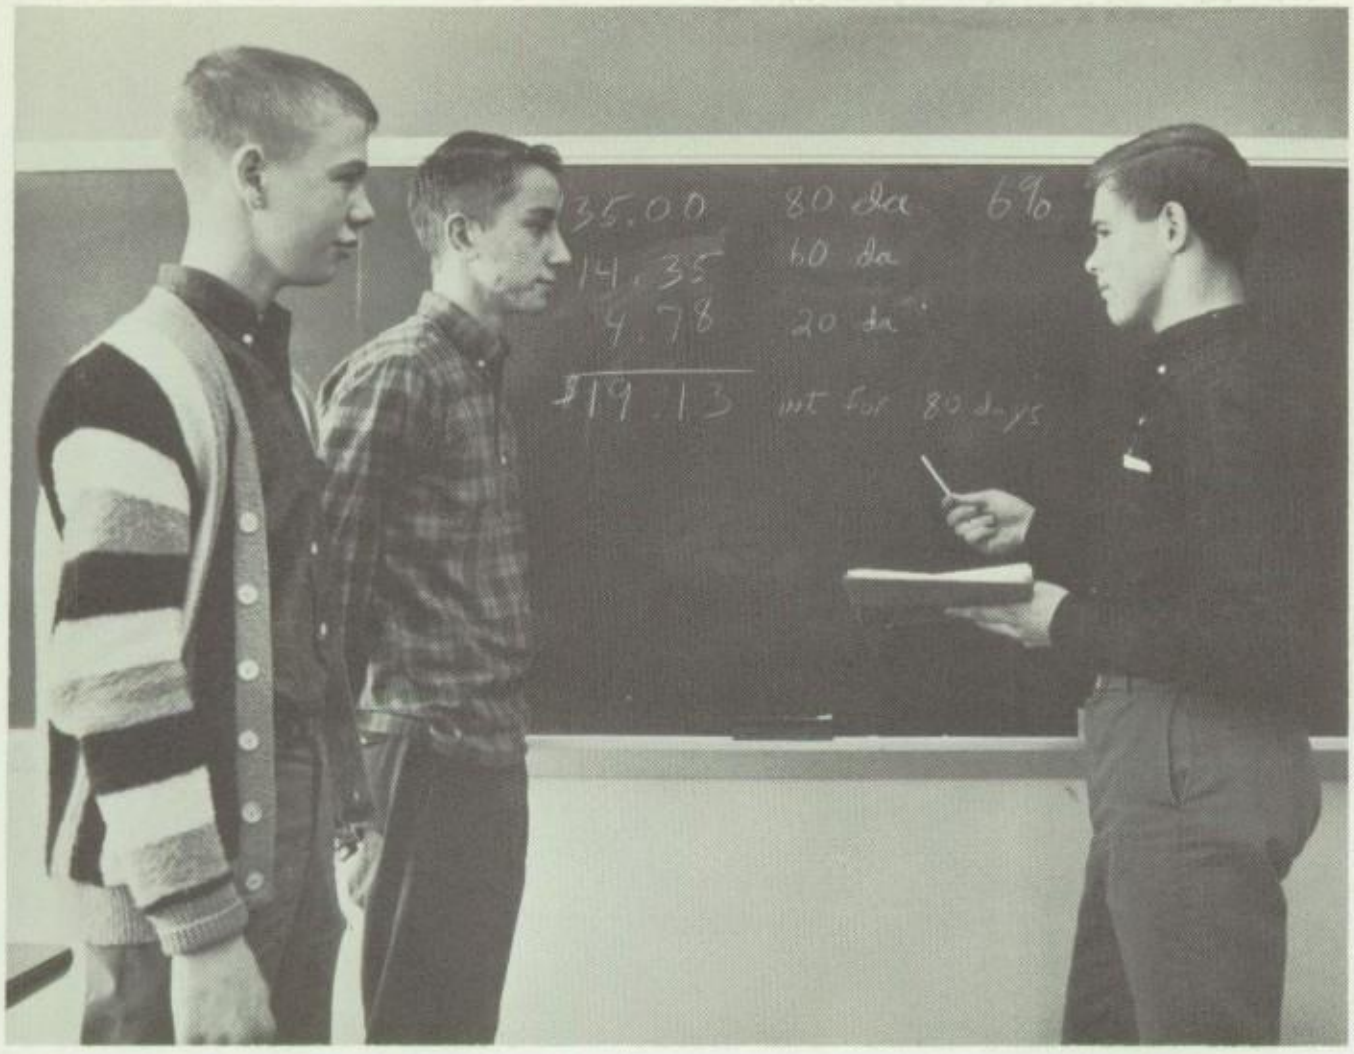
Dan Jurrus and Roger Keiffer inspect the S. R. A. materials that Mr. Wasserman has prepared for them for reading class while Gary Schumaker and Mr. Wasserman review Gary's progress in the course.



"Yes sir, I made it myself!" says Dan Saldusky, while demonstrating some of his handiwork to a fellow Medieval History student, Mary Wolph, who seems very interested.



The Ecumenical Council was a topic discussed by everyone in school this year. In Sophomore Religion class Father Donnelly reviews a notebook on the Council with Mike Etchen, Don Kinn, Carlyle Montgomery, Connie Brickner, and Mary Jo Elchert.



Norman Peiffer takes over for a day as professor in Business Arithmetic class and it looks like he's making life pretty miserable for Roger Keiffer and Pete Norris as Norman gives them an oral quiz.

Holly Jinks, ever striving to surpass the speed record, pays no attention to Carlyle Montgomery as he prepares his book for class.

Roger Holman seems about ready to give Sally Coppus and Nancy Droll the ax in a routine Latin II class.

These second year French students: Jane Faeth, Bonnie Hay, and Kathy Spieldenner, seem to enjoy singing a popular French song. In addition to grammar, French students receive an appreciation of French music and poetry.

Having completed three years

The junior year is a year of decision; it is the year when a student tries to decide just where he wants to go in life and what he must do to get there. He begins by asking himself questions—What would I like to do with my life? Do I need college or don't I? The answers to these questions hold the key to a student's future. Saint Wendelin High School, with its fine faculty and facilities, will eagerly give any assistance needed to help a student answer these questions.

Yvonne Brickner, Diana Wagner, Elaine Saldusky are the students of Typing II who take a quick peek at one of the tests just run off by their history teacher on the spirit duplicator.

"Are you sure that's Hawaii?" Joel Scott asks Carolyn Affholder as they confer on a geographical question tossed at them in Mr. Sobon's American History class.

Mr. Sobon tutors Karl Snyder in Drafting I class so Karl must be quiet (for a while, anyway), so Bob Hoover takes advantage of this opportunity to yuk it up in the background.

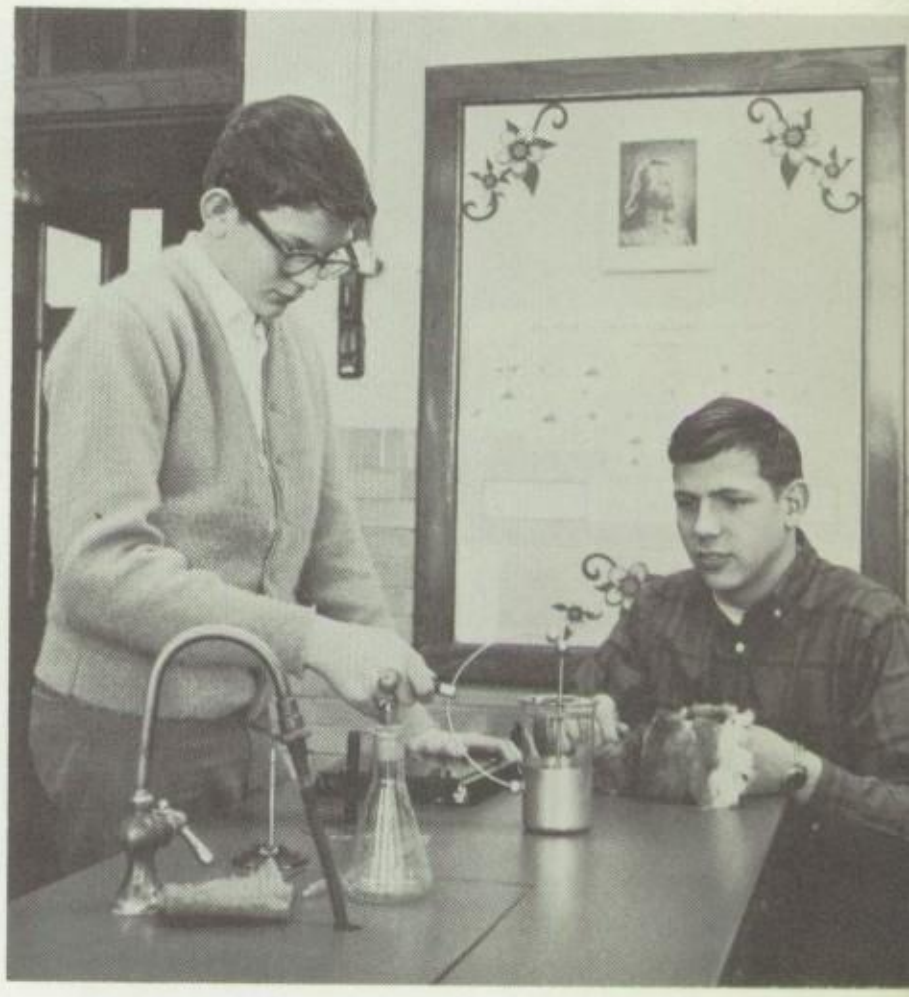
Dave Clouse and Gene Frankart are now ready to start their own music company as they have just solved the mysteries of Sister Mary Lewellin's music machine in Physics class.

Mr. Pocs reads his third year English students their favorite story, "Goldilocks and the Three Bears." Lucy Reese, Bob Hoover, Karl Snyder, Duane Burns, Ed Wise, Mickie Weidner, Harry Peluso, Sharon Miller, and Peggy Roberts seem to be enjoying the selection.

Juniors learn through the efforts of Sister Mary Gregory in Religion III. Sandy Snavely, Roberta Waltermeyer, Joyce Boes, Carol Ritter, Mary Haubert, Terry Mitchell, Kent Thomas, Francis Hoffbauer, Steve Kinn, and Jim Frankart listen attentively as Sister explains and Jim Huth writes the lesson on the board.



Tim Weimerskirch and Karl Snyder experiment with a leyden jar in Physics.

Seniors close the books

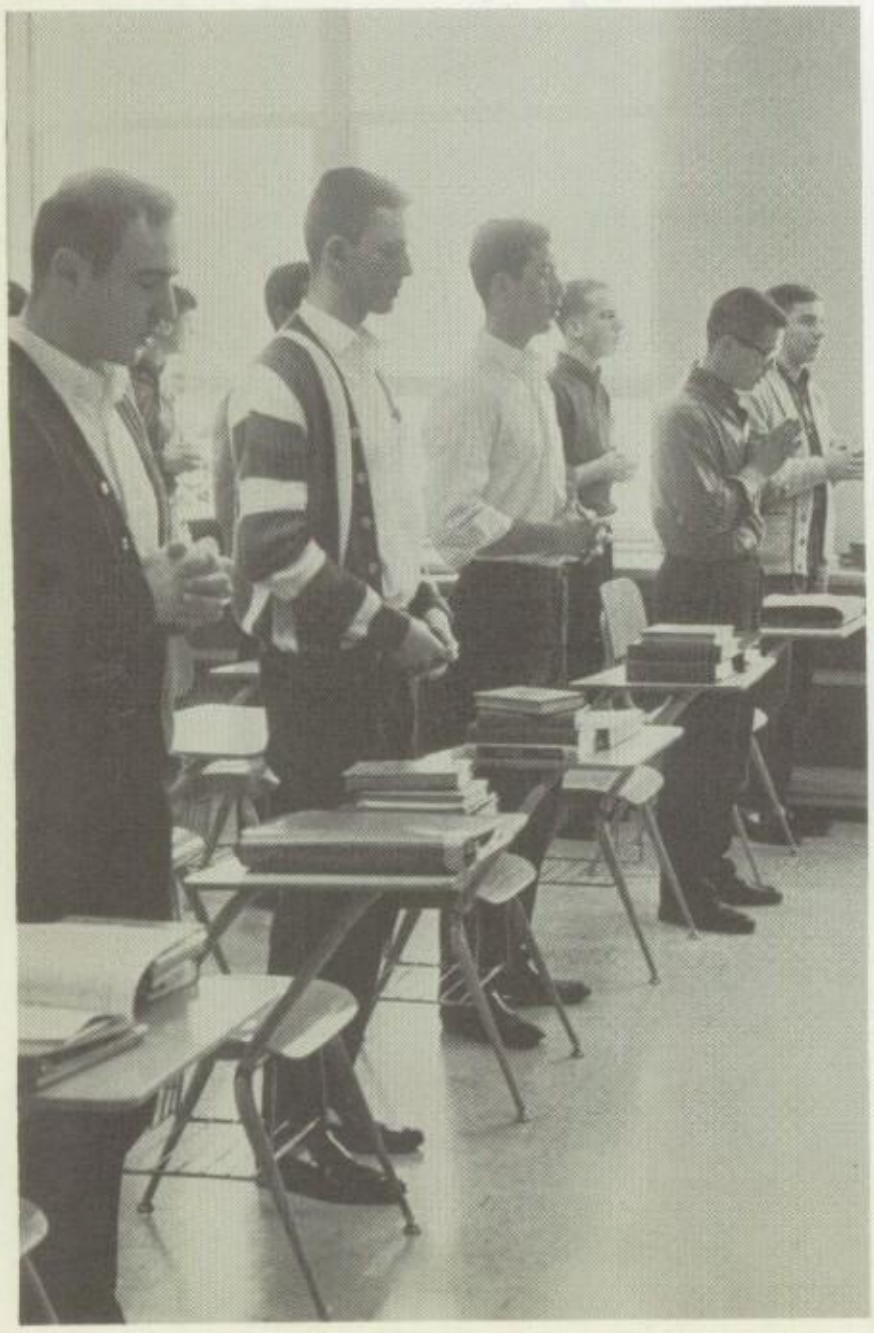
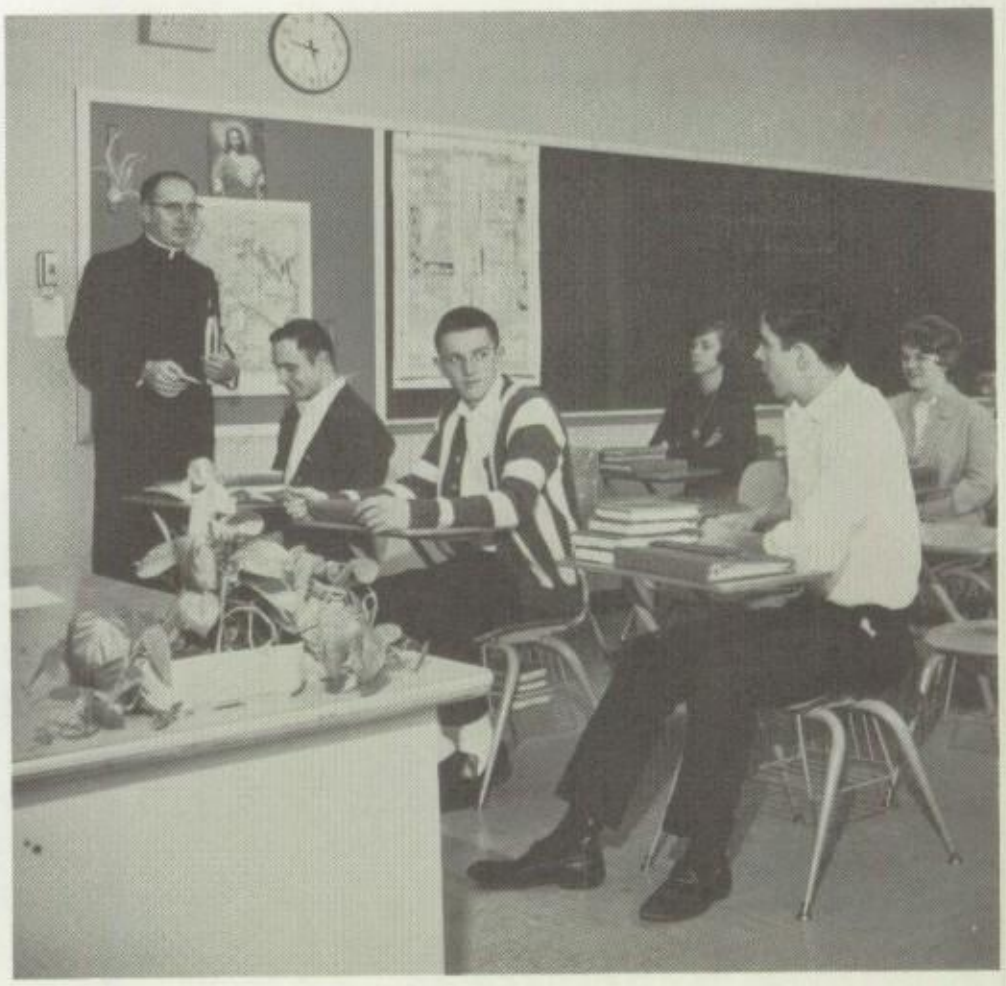
This June the seniors will indeed be leaving St. Wendelin's, and not without regrets. The past holds infinite memories, some bad, mostly good. The future, likewise, holds infinite possibilities for those willing to try. For some, the books are closed; for others, another milestone has been passed and, ahead, lie many more books to be opened and read in their continuing search for knowledge. In any event, these last four wonderful years will not soon, if ever, be forgotten by those who have lived them so fully and so well.



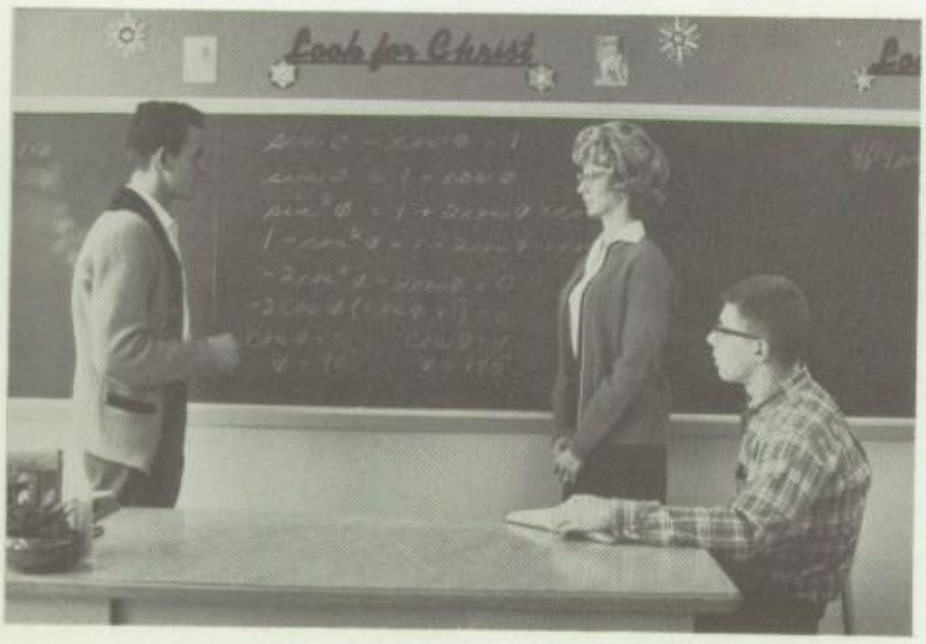


Father Hunter asks Jim Baker for the 634th time, "What is oratio obliqua?" and for the 634th time he gives the wrong answer. Bill George, and Don Woessner are about ready to give old Jim the axe, but Susie Bennett and Carolyn Affholder think nothing of it, as it is an everyday occurrence.

Each Latin III class is begun reverently by the praying of the "Hail Mary"—in Latin, of course.

Judy Reinhart, a senior stenography student of the Business Education Department, is typing a letter from notes dictated by Father D. S. Hunter, in the model office which serves as a lab to the department.

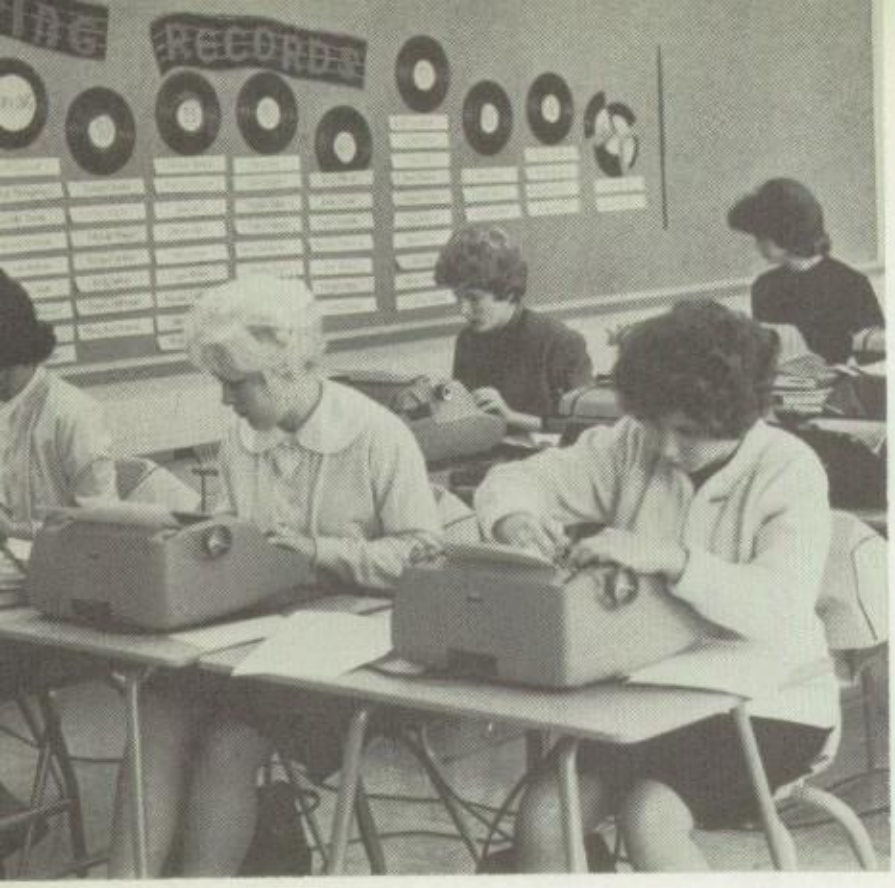
Acquiring the poise necessary for speaking before people is Bob Welly in Sister Bernardus' senior English course. Usual procedure was the writing of a theme or composition and then personally presenting it the next day before the class.



Gerry Holman explains how he solved this Math IV problem to Paula Steyer and Tom Wade.

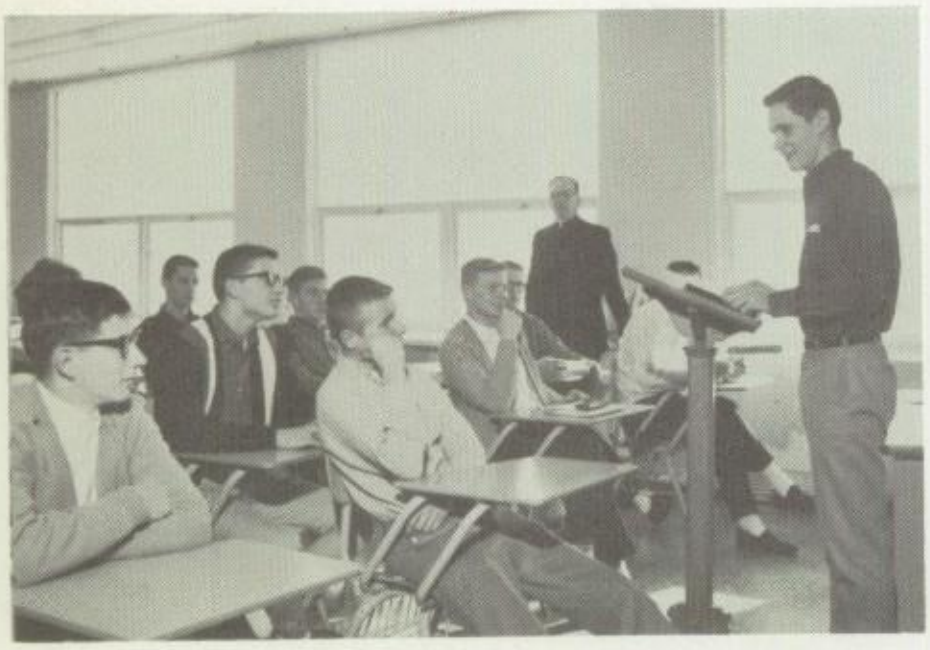
One of the outside interests of the French II class is reading Selections, the French equivalent of the Reader's Digest. In the library deciding who gets the latest edition are two masters of the French language, Kathy Windau and Bob Welly.

Mr. Herman lectures his Civics class, composed of senior men, and judging from the expressions everyone is intensely interested. First row (Left to right): J. D. Kinn, Joe Krupp, Gerry Holman, Mike Magers. Second row (Left to right): Dick Park, Larry Peiffer, Mike Reiter, Bob Welly, Norm Schumaker. Third row (Left to right): Gary Scherger, Don Woessner, Cliff Young, Jim Wenzke.



Seniors Elizabeth Miller, Dottie Miller, Kathy Cool, Pat Schreiner, and Kathy Thomas are typing, typing, and oops! Look who made the mistake.

Elizabeth Miller, Mary Lou Huether, and Lynda Howard learn by doing in the Senior Home Economics class which, in addition to its regular course, offers techniques of interior decorating and design.



Mike (Cicero) McCarty has achieved the nearly impossible in capturing the attention of senior boys Ron Aurand, Dick Park, Chuck Hagenmaier, Tom Holman, Dan Haaser, Mike Bixler, Norm Schumaker, and Mike Corcoran in Father Hunter's Speech Class.

They're reaching for success in Father Hunter's Sociology Class. Father keeps the activity at a high ebb with exercises—physical as well as mental.

We would have appreciated adding machines way back in the first grade but it isn't until our senior year that we learn how easy life can be with them. Office practice students are: Susan Thompson, Judy Roberts, and Sharon Williams.

Chemistry offers a wide array of experiments and experiences. In this instance Mike Reiter, Rosanne Peiffer, and Cathy Thomas are finding out some interesting activity traits of hydrogen.

Mr. Pocs gives to Mary Lou Huether some of the individual attention he so willingly offers his bookkeeping students while Kathy Babb, Harold Dillery, Kathy Windau, Pat Schreiner, Sharon Williams, Dorothy Bowser, Elizabeth Miller, and Bob Welly get a head start on the evening's assignment.

Group discussion plays an important role in the learning process of Dan Haaser, J. D. Kinn, Cliff Young, and Ron Aurand while Dick Park, Joe Krupp, Harold Dillery and Louie Kitchen prove or disprove their conclusions in regard to Modern History.

Chuck Hagenmaier and Kathy Windau look on passively as Don Woessner and Bob Jurrus frantically attempt to overcome technical difficulties.

Ah, ha! What have we here? A penalty period? For seniors only? How about that for exclusiveness. To look at the expressions on the faces of Louis Kitchen, Norm Schumaker, and Sharon Williams it seems as though Father Hunter's penalties are a breeze. But then look at the deep concentration showing on Dick Park's face.

Preparation of scenery for the senior class play seems to be an enjoyable task for Elizabeth Miller, Cliff Young, Norman Schumaker, and Harold Dillery.

Dick Flechtner and Don Woessner take pleasure in serving Connie Frisch as Nick Harmon attends to an unidentified customer.

The end of the year finds Louie Kitchen, Judy Gabel, and Lynda Howard faced with the agreeable task of cleaning their lockers for the last time.

The controversial topic of selecting a senior class play is attended to by Judy Gabel, Jim Baker, Mary Weber, and Kathy Weingates.

Mike Bixler seems to enjoy being measured by Don Woessner for his graduation robe.

AN MAN

The girls of Saint Wendelin comprise the members of the Sodality, but it benefits the entire student body. The Sodality has been very active in 1963. The Prefect, Carol Elchert, was accompanied by Glenda White, Kateri LaFontain, and Sister Mary Johnene on a trip to Chicago to attend the S.S.C.A. Convention. The Sodality has acquainted the student body with the dangers of Communism and have taught them how to put the act in Catholic Action. As "Tradition Prevails" inspiration from a Sodality project such as the Living Rosary is planted into the soul of Saint Wendelin High School. The other Sodality moderators are Sister Mary Gregory and Sister Mary Giovanni.

1962-1963 officers of Saint Wendelin Sodality are: Jane Roberts, Vice-Prefect; Carol Elchert, Prefect; Jane Kinn, Secretary; and Donna Haslinger, Treasurer.

The Sophomore Sodality group has taken upon itself the task of making a report on the Ecumenical Council. These girls made posters and reports (Left to right): Mary Jo Elchert, Jane Faeth, Sally Coppus, and Mary Ann Sheeran.

It looks as if Jim Pigman has already sampled some of the goodies raffled at the sophomore cake booth on Mission Day. Rog Holman picks up a cake that he finally won after an afternoon of bad luck.

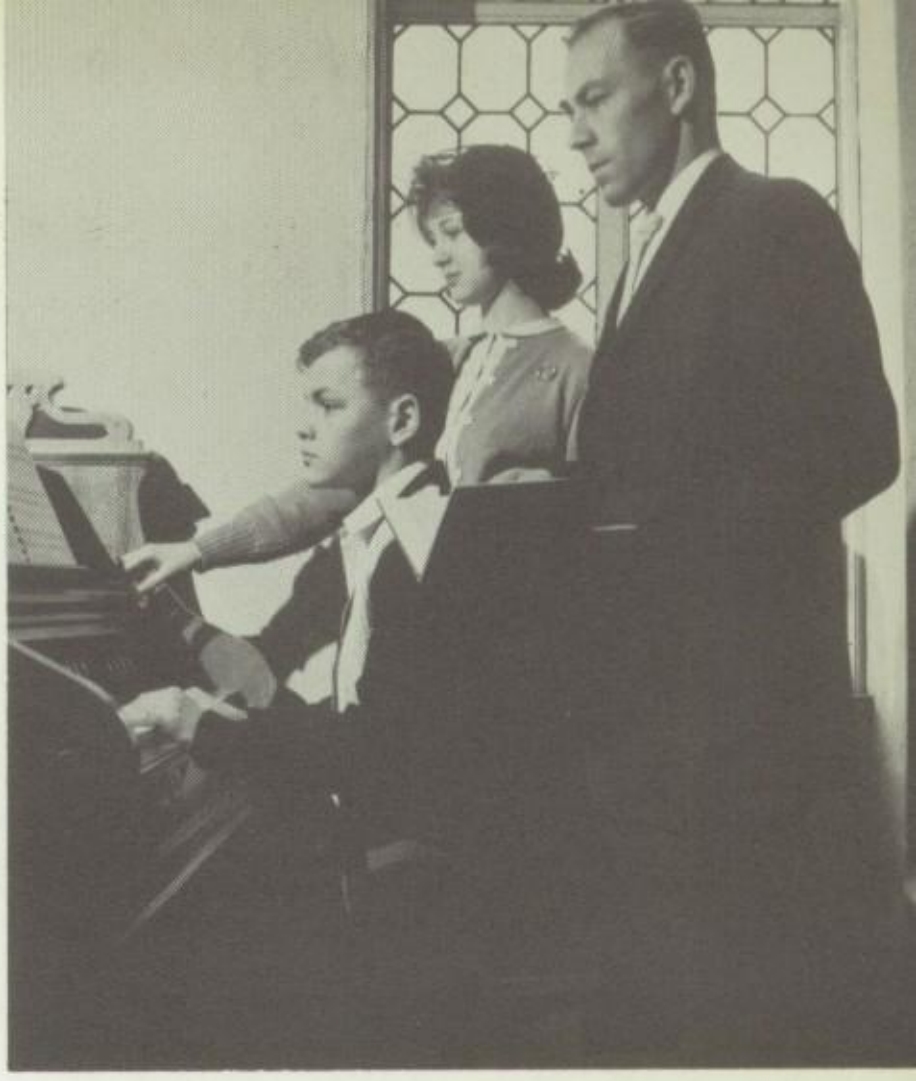
The senior girls' contribution to this year's project was the homemade candy booth. Watching the wheel of fortune is Betty Miller and Eileen Bentz as Pat Schreiner makes a wise decision as to what goes next; the fudge or the fondant.

Sally Welly has that ray of hope beaming forth as Mr. Pocs inspects the stakes. Sally is one of the more than three hundred students that gave to the missions the almost-painless way through raffles and contests.

The poker table was one of the more popular centers on Mission Day. The house usually won as Louis Kitchen, Chuck Hagenmaier, Richie Walters, and Joe Krupp found out from experience.

Two seniors who gave of their time, talent, and sleep are Sharon Williams and Judy Roberts. These two girls got up and sang the early morning Mass at the parish church.

Senior girls who sacrificed free periods and Saturdays to assist Sister Mary Giovanni in preparing the altar for Holy Mass are Pamela Williams, Pat Schreiner, and Eileen Bentz.



Each Monday Robert Joseph Reinhart accompanied the freshmen on the organ while Mr. L. Edward Wasserman directed. Kateri LaFontain was organist for the sophomores and upperclassmen.

Christmas Dance

At last the big night has come. Bubbling over with excitement and anticipation is Jane Kinn as Jim Baker pins on her corsage. Kathy Murrin and Jim Zender wait patiently for this feat to be performed.

The juniors spent many hours decorating for the dance and as a result our photographer has captured this beautiful silhouette in his lens.

Not everyone comes to the dance just to eat and therefore we were able to find a few students taking advantage of the music. Even the chaperones couldn't resist the tempting fox trots as we see Mr. and Mrs. Speelman waltzing off the lower right hand corner.

"After the ball is over" it's time for memories and wilted corsages. Leaving the dance are: Jane Roberts, Tom Schetter, Patrice Huth, and Stu King.

The C. Y. O. has many wonderful opportunities for recreation both mental and physical. The officers and chairmen gather with Father Wurzel, moderator, to plan a new schedule. The CYO offers Catholic youth ample opportunity to develop many different aspects of their lives. St. Wendelin's CYO likewise has always offered the students a wealth of spiritual, cultural, social, and athletic activities in which to take part. This year was no exception. There were the monthly CYO Masses, pilgrimages to Carey, athletics, dances, and some "special events"—like the Halloween dance and the Valentine's Day dance. One very noteworthy exception to the past, however, was this year's fine CYO basketball team which won the first Deanery championship for St. Wendelin's since 1956.

This year's fine CYO basketball team, captained by Jerry Holman and coached by John Heinsman, fought their way to a second-place berth in league play this year. They absorbed only one loss—in their first game, to first place finisher, Findlay St. Michael. Once organized, though, the Saints got up a head of steam that never diminished; and when tournament time came along they easily rolled off victories over all their opponents, and came out on top with the first tournament trophy for St. Wendelin since 1956.

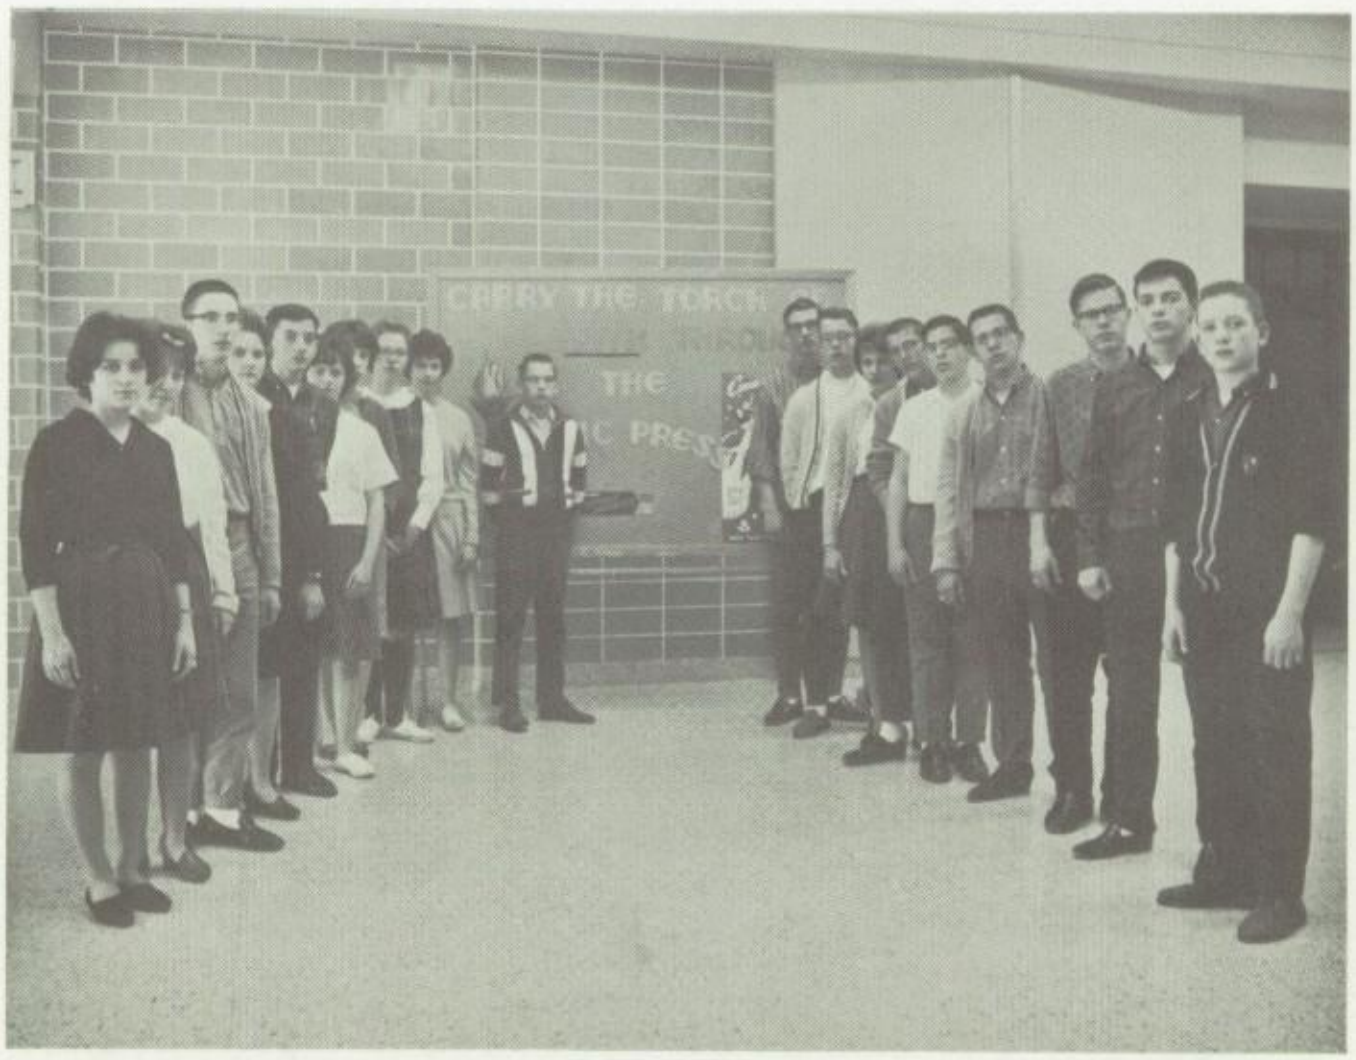
A newly formed organization at Saint Wendelin's is the boys' Y. C. S. It is still in the formative stages but the boys seem to like it. We hope that in the next few years the organization will grow in number and in spirit. Sitting (Left to right): John Bulkowski, Joel Scott, Father Hunter, Jim Crawford, Dave Clouse. Standing (Left to right): Mike Lonsway, Karl Snyder, Terry Miller, Jim Zender, Mike Magers, Jim Gehring.

Foslin campaign winner Mary Jo Bugner and runner-up Lucy Reese congratulate each other on their fine efforts.



The Catholic Chronicle is one of our annual campaigns. Each homeroom does its best to win the contest both because of the apostolic mission involved and because of the prizes offered. The Chronicle leaders spark their classmates on to victory and do it all for the furthering of our diocesan newspaper. Leaders are (Left to right): Mary Jo Bugner, Donna Haslinger, Charles Bulkowski, Georgia Buchman, Greg Lonsway, Janet Babb, Mary Ann Scharf, Connie Brickner, Linda Wade, Bob Gehring, Charles Hagenmaier, Jim Gehring, Gretchen Nye, Larry Holman, Tom Evans, Mike Lonsway, Dick Flechtner, John Bugner, Rex Speelman. Always a topic of conversation is Father Hunter's famous painting which graces the wall of his office. Father tries to explain to Kathy Windau, Larry Finsel, and Dave Hoover why he has entitled it "Sacred Heart."

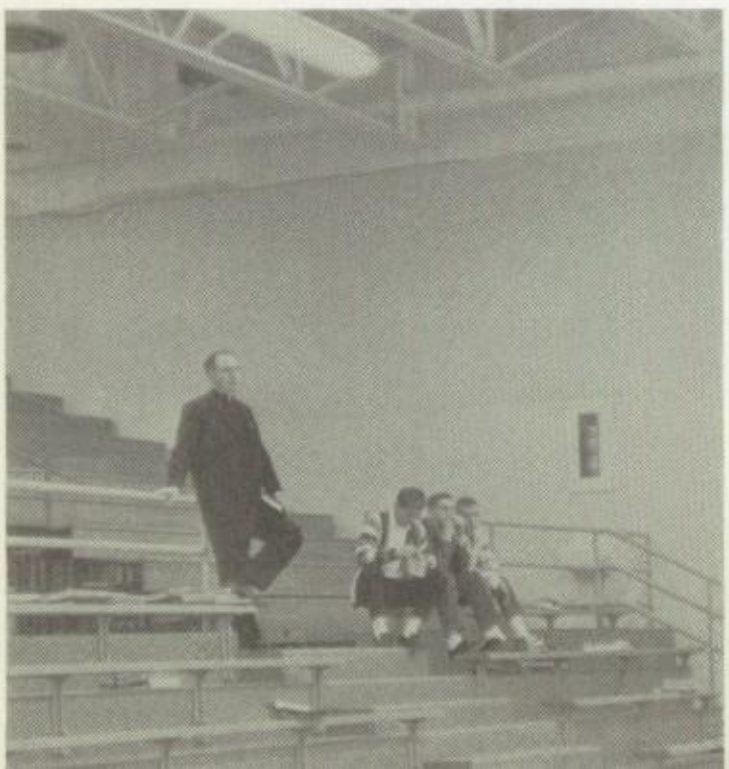
Mrs. Crawford is busy in her office as usual. She always has a friendly word and a smile as she duplicates our transcripts for college entrance applications.

Mr. Macias is always there when the room is too cold, when a light goes out, when a fuse blows, or when you need a step-ladder. He has been with us for seven years and we are privileged to have him in the lead of our maintenance crew.

Taking a little time out from the pots and pans are the five cafeteria ladies. (Left to right): Mrs. Boyer, Mrs. Grine, Mrs. Gase, Mrs. Hoover, and Mrs. Schultz.



The photographer has captured a rare pose of Father Hunter in one of his meditative moods. As Aristotle contemplated Homer, so Father Hunter contemplates the unknown.

Our three able bodied maintenance men (Left to right): Mr. Charles (Charlie) Macias, Mr. Wilfred (Bus) Kuhn, and Mr. Gordon (Scottie) Scott are attracted by some interesting reading material.

Something has captured the attention of Mr. Sobon, Jim Ballreich, and Mike Frias in American History. This is not an unusual stance for Mr. Sobon; he always takes this pose when he is dumbfounded by a brilliant or profound answer.

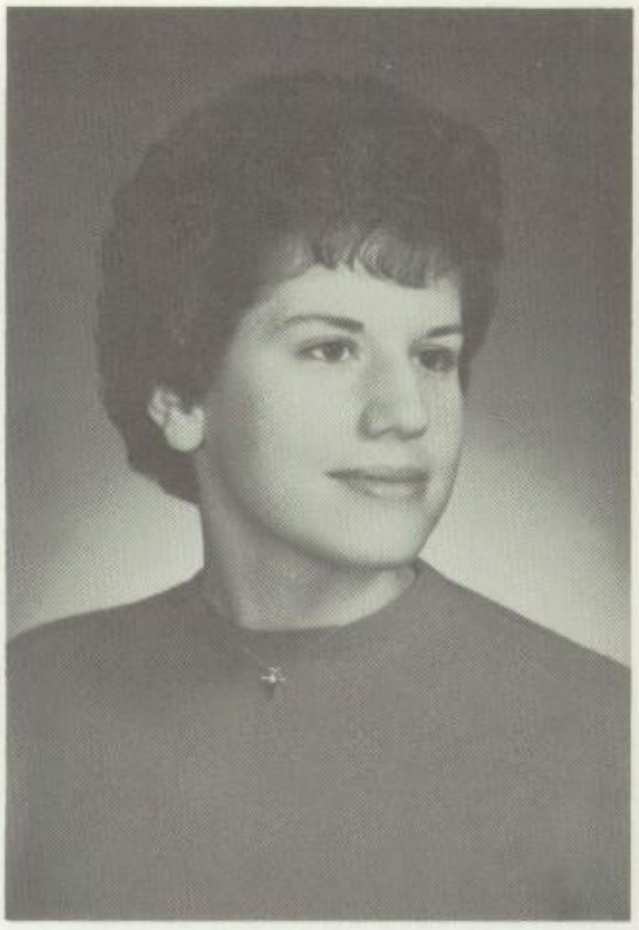
Dave Weimerskirch, Helen Mendoza, Chuck Hendricks, David Bulkowski, Dave Estrada, and Dave Hammer seem to have awaked the ire in Mr. Herman's otherwise jovial disposition during General Science class.

Judging from the expression on Father Hunter's and Mrs. Crawford's faces, the student whose permanent record they are reviewing shouldn't have any difficulty entering college.

Foslin Staff

On these pages are the students who produced this year's FOSLIN. St. Wendelin can well be proud of these young men and women who spent what sometimes seemed "endless" hours in the FOSLIN office. Under the watchful eye of Kathy Weingates, the very capable editor of the FOSLIN, they worked on feverishly toward the deadline everyday. But pleasure can be mixed with business, and from these long hours of working side by side with their fellow classmates came the warmth of understanding and friendship such as only a senior can feel.

Thanks, staff, for a job well done!



KATHLEEN ANN WEINGATES

Last August the first step in putting out the Foslin was taken with the launching of the ad campaign. We added an air of festivity with cake and other refreshments of the like.

In September an office was prepared for the Foslin staff. We did a little redecorating and touching up here and there to facilitate our needs. Paula Steyer is putting together our work table with the able help of Nick Harmon and Dick Park.

Busy, busy, busy that's our staff. Slaving away at their respective sheaves of work are Kathy Weingates, John Ray, Nick Harmon, Rosanne Peiffer, Bill George, Kathy Babb, and Mike Reiter. The expression on Bill's face could mean this is an unfamiliar pose for this stately group.

Students of French II boarded one of the school busses early in January and went to the Toledo Museum of Art to see the Treasures of Versailles. The collection was very interesting. Daily visits to the chapel to recite the stations in unison made up a part of the retreat practices of all classes. Pictured is the senior class who set a fine example in retreat activities.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

An Ever-growing Music Department

Officers of the band and glee club knit the two groups together into an organization which is growing fast in St. Wendelin. Jane Roberts, Band Secretary; Glenda White, Glee President; Mickie Weidner, Glee Vice-President; Mary Jo Elchert, Glee Treasurer; Jane Elchert, Glee Secretary; Tom Schetter, Band Vice-President; John Ray, Band President; Nick Harmon, Boys' Glee President; Dick Flechtner, Band Uniform Custodian; Judy Roberts, Band Librarian; and Cheryl Speelman, Band Librarian. John Kiebel was absent.

Thanks largely to the easier access to materials and the dedication of its members, the music department has been able to expand considerably. The band has noticeably profited from the fine new instruments and facilities which have been made available to it by the recent expansion of the high school. Also, both the band and the Glee Club enjoy the benefits of the new pianos. Special praise is in order for our Band Director, Mr. Timothy McGee, whose tireless devotion to Saint Wendelins and to music have made our music department one to be proud of.

SPORTS

Saints Romp Through a Winning Season

The efforts of our cheerleaders: Mary Weber, Kateri LaFontain, Ann Strouse, Kathy Murrin, Sharon Williams, and Judy Gabel were responsible for the fine spirit of all the fans at the Saint Wendelin games this season. These girls deserve a great deal of credit for their unselfish devotion to the team. Undaunted by the sometimes unfavorable weather they always were there to cheer the team onward.

Somewhere under this human pyramid Gary Scherger has just plowed over the goal line for a Saint Wendelin touchdown. Gary proved to be a most versatile player this year. Besides being the one who kicked off, he played several positions. Most of the time we found him at the tackle spot, while on certain occasions he filled in at fullback. Had the need arisen, Gary could have just as easily been seen streaking down the field from an end position. Captain Gary Scherger is an outstanding example of the all-around player.

The Linemen

The linemen were the boys who were down where the action was roughest. Play after play they charged forward and hit with all they had, never resting until one of our ballcarriers crossed the goal line. On defense they tenaciously guarded every inch. Mike McCarty, who held the end position, and Jim Wenzke, who played defensive linebacker as well as offensive center, foiled all attempts to penetrate the Saints' defense. Our two "big men," Larry Peiffer and Dave Hoover, literally flattened out many a poor unfortunate who dared venture within their massive reach.

Jim Zender breaks through the Grand Rapids line behind the blocking of Dave Hoover and Gary Scherger. Jim drove for valuable yardage time after time this season. One of our most important ground-gainers, Jim always seemed to come up with the big play whenever we needed it most. Besides being an outstanding halfback, Jim played defensive linebacker in the latter part of the season and proved to be a rough customer in that department also.

The Captains

A captain of a football team has a double responsibility: first, to fulfill his own task to the best of his ability; second, to make sure the rest of the team do their task equally well. A captain is not a good captain unless he is a good leader. The best way a captain can lead is by his own good example. We are proud of these boys, proud of them as football players, and proud of them as young Catholic men: Gary Scherger, tackle; Mike Faber, quarterback; Bill George, tackle; and Jim Zender, halfback.

"Two off-the-field coaches" Father Walter and Dr. Markey watch the game with concern. Father Walter takes care of the spiritual needs of the team, while Dr. Markey makes sure everyone is in top physical shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Zender and their son, Jim, line up for the half-time parade on Parents' Night. Although the weather left something to be desired, the Saints' playing did not, and the Mohawks walked off with a 38-20 victory against Grand Rapids.

The People behind the Team

Gerry Young, Bob Gehring, Ron Williams, and Johnny Kiebel (absent) were the four faithful managers who worked tirelessly behind the scenes.

Neither sleet nor rain, nor snow nor storm can keep away the faithful fans. From the varied facial expressions it is hard to tell what is happening out on the field, but one thing is certain: it was cold and wet that night.

J. D. Kinn and Cliff Young fight out the game on the bench. J. D. was sidelined with a knee injury, while Cliff suffered a severely sprained ankle.

Otsego, 36-7

Showing the same championship form that St. Wendelin fans had come to expect, the mighty Mohawks opened the 1962 season by downing Otsego 36-7. Sophomore Wade Oberle crossed the goal line first for the Saints by grabbing a 7-yard pass from quarterback Mike Faber. Hoffbauer, Kinn, Zender, and Faber all entered the endzone to complete the scoring.

St. Paul, 6-6

"A battle of defenses." This is what the newspapers picked it to be and this is what it was. The game started out for the Mohawks as so many others had, with a long sustained drive deep into St. Paul territory, but then it fizzled. This was the story of the game: long drives by both teams only to be stopped in the other's territory by magnificent defense on the part of both teams. A great deal of the credit must go to our stalwart line: Gary Scherger, Larry Peiffer, Dave Hoover, and Dan Howbert. These "Four Horsemen" dug in and held when the chips were down when we needed them most. The lone St. Wendelin touchdown came on a 25-yard pass from Faber to Magers.

Elmore, 20-0

Back on home soil, the Saints registered their third victory of the season against a determined Elmore club. The Mohawk defense was at its best and held Elmore to a meager 10 yards rushing. Individual effort played a great deal in the overall team strength of the Saints. A fine example of this was Dan Howbert, a junior tackle, who blocked his fifth punt of the season in addition to playing an over-all outstanding defensive game. Alertness also counted for one of the Saints' touchdowns when Bill George pounced on a fumble in the Elmore endzone. The two other touchdowns were compiled by Zender and Faber.

Woodville, 26-0

Continuing their winning ways St. Wendelin came through their second encounter of the season with a 26-0 victory. A drizzly night and a muddy field kept the Mohawks on the ground for most of the night. However, Mike Faber, showing the ingenuity that made him all-Ohio selection in 1961, stunned Woodville's defense by pulling off a pass or two at the most unexpected moments. Hoffbauer hit the scoring column twice followed by Kinn and Zender to chalk up the Saints' 26 points.

Gibsonburg, 20-34

The mighty Mohawks tasted defeat for the first time in fourteen games when they traveled to Gibsonburg. The game started out as usual for the Saints with the first quarter score, 8-0, in favor of St. Wendelin. Almost before the dust had begun to settle however, the lead was reversed and the scoreboard was heavy on the Gibsonburg side. The Saints scored two more times but it was not enough to overcome the lead. The Saints' touchdowns were by Faber and Kinn.

Grand Rapids 38-20

The Saint Wendelin Mohawks treated a large Parents' Night crowd to a thrilling wide-open ball game. A cold drizzle that fell during most of the day must have dampened the spirit of the Mohawks for they found themselves on the short end of a 6-0 score after two plays had gone by. Pulling themselves together the Saints quickly drove down the field to make the score 8-6. Just as quickly however, Grand Rapids came back with another touchdown to make the score 12-8. This lead again was short lived as St. Wendelin swept through the Grand Rapids defense to up the score to 16-12. From then on the Mohawks took charge. The Saints' defense tightened up and held the Pirates to only 8 yards rushing in the second half. The offense, with Faber at the helm, compiled three more touchdowns to up the total to five, including those by Zender, Faber, Magers, and Hoffbauer.

Coach Herman fills the team in on some last minute instructions. "Now don't tackle the officials!"

Ottawa Hills 22-38

The Saints' journey to Ottawa Hills ended in a tie for second place in the Seaway Conference. A highly spirited Hills' team proved more of a stumbling block than the Saints had anticipated. And the surprised Mohawks found themselves on the short end of a 12-0 score early in the first quarter of the game. The Saints were undaunted however, and quickly broke into the scoring column. A wide-open game provided the fans with some thrilling plays that kept the whole stadium in suspense till the last second. Jim Zender plowed through the Ottawa Hills line for two touchdowns while Francis Hoffbauer skirted right end for the third.

Lakeside 30-8

Back on the war-path again St. Wendelin came through with a smashing victory over Lakeside. A crowd of enthusiastic fans watched tensely as the Saints combined sweeps and passes for their first touchdown. Lakeside, seeing that their situation was desperate, opened up with a long desperate pass. This momentarily stunned the Mohawks, and when they recovered the score was 8-8. This was not to last, however, and before the half was over the Saints had compiled two more touchdowns to up the score to 22-8. The final tally was made by converted-tackle Gary Scherger, who had shifted to fullback spot. Scherger was replacing Steve Kinn who was out with a concussion.

Six Mohawks decide it's the end of the line for a Grand Rapids ball-carrier while his team-mates look on helplessly. Steve Kinn, Gary Schumaker, Bill George, Jim Theis, Gary Scherger, and Francis Hoffbauer are an example of what made the Mohawks great: teamwork.

North Baltimore 14-8

A bitterly cold, snow-covered field provided some real tough going for the Mohawks when they journeyed to North Baltimore. The Saints' score seemed to be held down more by the weather than by the North Baltimore defense. Twice Saint Wendelin gave up the ball on the North Baltimore one because of fumbles and mistakes caused by the slippery turf. Undaunted however, the Saints kept on plugging away until Mike Magers pulled in a 22-yard pass from Faber to tally the final score of the game. The other Saint Wendelin touchdown was made by Oberle.

Margaretta 8-36

In the last game of the season the high-flying Mohawks had a little trouble getting off the ground due to a muddy runway. Rain, pouring down through the entire game, proved to be the downfall of the Mohawks who lost the ball nine times, unfortunately, deep in their own territory. On the whole however, the team fought hard, and in spirit the Mohawks had one of the best games of the season. Hoffbauer scampered around left end to put the Saints in the scoring column and Zender pulled in the final two points.

In his first year at St. Wendelin Head Coach Dick Hearden faced a rebuilding season. With only one starting player returning, Coach had to fashion a ball club that had very little varsity experience. However, the season proved to be a successful one, not so much in always winning but more in the wonderful, unifying spirit found in both the team and in the school in general.

Mike Faber
Guard

Saint Mary's, 51-44

Determined to put themselves in the winning column, Saint Wendelin did just that as they valiantly outfought a much taller Sandusky Saint Mary's team to pull in their first victory of the season. Down by as much as 8 points in the first period, the Saints stubbornly held on until they broke away in the closing minutes with a seven point splurge. The scoring was evenly distributed as Mike Magers canned 12 while Mike Faber and George Welly hit for 10 apiece.

Jim Zender
Forward

North Baltimore, 52-58

Saint Wendelin opened its 62-63 season with a surprising loss to North Baltimore. The Saints outshot the Tigers from the field but lost the game at the charity stripe. A pair of eagle-eye officials slapped the Mohawks with 30 personals which proved to be the Saints' downfall. High scorer was Wade Oberle with 22 points.

Otsego, 44-45

The Mohawks tasted defeat for the second straight time. The loss was a very unusual one, for when the final buzzer sounded Saint Wendelin had won by the score of 44-43. However, it was discovered that Otsego had called for time out with 3 seconds remaining. In the replaying of these final 3 seconds Otsego quickly passed the ball down the floor and swished it through the bucket with a long outside shot to reverse the decision. High scorer of the night was Wade Oberle with 21 points.

Mike Magers
Forward

Ottawa Hills, 36-38

In their second league game the Mohawks dropped a heart-breaker to Ottawa Hills. It simply seemed as if there were a lid on the basket for the Saints connected on a meager 10 out of 45 attempted shots. The only bright spot was Jim Zender who pumped in 19 points to keep the Saints in the running until the last second of play.

Gibsonburg, 48-30

Saint Wendelin, playing one of the finest games of the season, walked over a befuddled Gibsonburg quintet. Perhaps the biggest factor of the contest was the superb defense and the outstanding board-control of the Saints. Not being able to get inside, Gibsonburg was forced to shoot from a long way out and the score plainly shows this. The Mohawks also took very good care of the boards as they out-rebounded Gibsonburg 46-26. Wade Oberle led the scoring with 17 points.

Hopewell-Loudon, 50-78

An excellent team from Hopewell-Loudon proved to be more than the Saints could handle. Although the Mohawks fought hard they could never quite catch up to the fast pace set by the Chieftains. However a great deal of credit goes to the wonderful spirit of our valiant Mohawks. Wade Oberle topped the scoring column with 14 points.

St. Joseph, 54-47

Sunday afternoon a journey ended in a very satisfying victory for the Mohawks' ball club. At times things seemed a little dark for the Saints, especially in the closing minutes of the third quarter when they found themselves down by as much as 10 points. But then George Welly flipped in three quick shots from the outside and Jim Zender broke in for a lay-up to narrow the margin considerably. Mike Faber then sent the game into overtime with a pair of free throws. Terry Miller quickly stuffed one in to put the Saints out front during the overtime. St. Joe desperatey pressed to get the ball and in doing so committed foul after foul. Taking advantage of this, the Mohawks neatly iced their cake with 6 more points. Mike Faber took scoring honors with 15 points.

Kathy Murrin tensely awaits the outcome of a free-throw.

It is hard to tell what the subject of conversation is between Coach Hearden and Coach Herman, but it's plain to see that Fr. Hunter and Fr. Walter are thoroughly enjoying the game.

Gibsonburg, 39-42

The Saint Wendelin Mohawks found Gibsonburg's gym a much more unhospitable place than the location of their last encounter which was on the Saints' home court. Off to a slow start, the Mohawks could not manage to get the scoreboard on their side until the end of the third quarter. This was not to be however, for Gibsonburg fought back and tied the game. Then with 25 seconds remaining the Bears hit on a jump shot and followed it with a free throw to wrap up the game. Wade Oberle was again high scorer with 17 points.

Lakeside, 43-35

Back on the war path again the Mighty Mohawks fought through a frigid first half to pour on the steam in the third period and put the game out of reach for the Lakers. The Saints outscored Lakeside from both the field and from the free throw line. After playing an outstanding defensive game all season, Mike Faber finally came through with scoring honors with a total of 13.

Ronnie Williams and Jerry Young shared the managing duties for the '62-'63 season.

North Baltimore, 55-51

Once more in the victory column Saint Wendelin forged ahead in the first quarter and never relinquished their lead. As Coach Hearden said, "It was a team win." And indeed it was; Mike Magers, Jim Zender and Wade Oberle all ended in double figures while Mike Faber and Terry Miller did an outstanding job defensively. Jim Zender pumped in 18 points to take the scoring honors.

Grand Rapids, 52-31

Lengthening their victory column Saint Wendelin plowed under the Grand Rapids Pirates by the resounding score of 52-31. The Mohawks introduced a new aggressive type of defense and it worked perfectly as Grand Rapids was forced into wild shots and passes which the Saints readily capitalized on. Mike Faber set the scoring pace with 16 points.

Saint Paul, 53-43

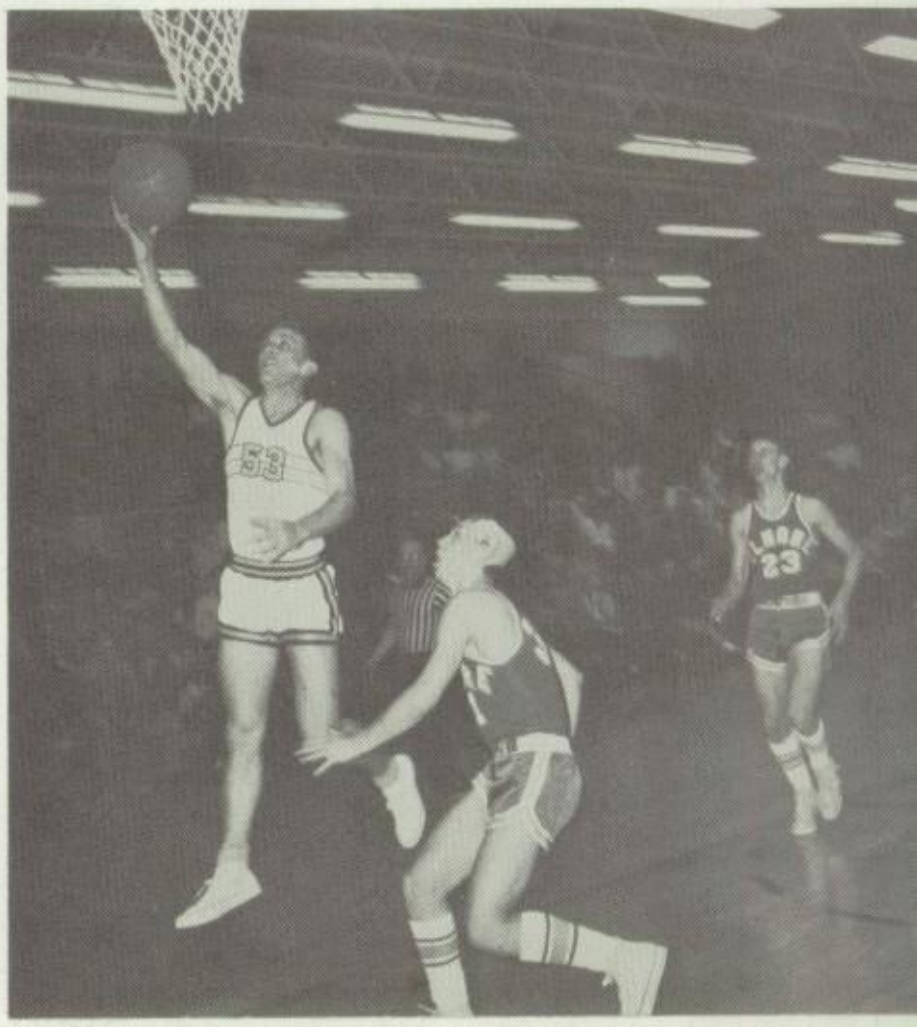
The Mohawks' arch rival, Saint Paul, became the third straight victim of the victory-hungry Mohawks. The Saints quickly sped away from the Flyers in the first quarter and were never to lose the lead, although Saint Paul desperately tried to narrow the margin. High scorer of the afternoon was Jim Zender who flipped in 19 points.

Elmore, 63-77

A cold second quarter spelled the difference between victory and defeat as the Mohawks fell to Elmore in a foul-marred contest. The Saints led during most of the first quarter but the second period saw Elmore take a commanding lead which the Mohawks could never quite overcome. Mike Faber was again high point man as he upped the scoring by 15 points.

Ottawa Hills, 37-49

Forced to shoot from the outside because of the absence of 6-4 center Wade Oberle due to a sprained ankle, the Saints found the road awfully rough. In fact the Saints scored but 8 field goals during the entire game. One of the high spots in the game was the beautiful hook shot made by George Welly from a considerable distance out. Faber topped the scoring column with 15 points.



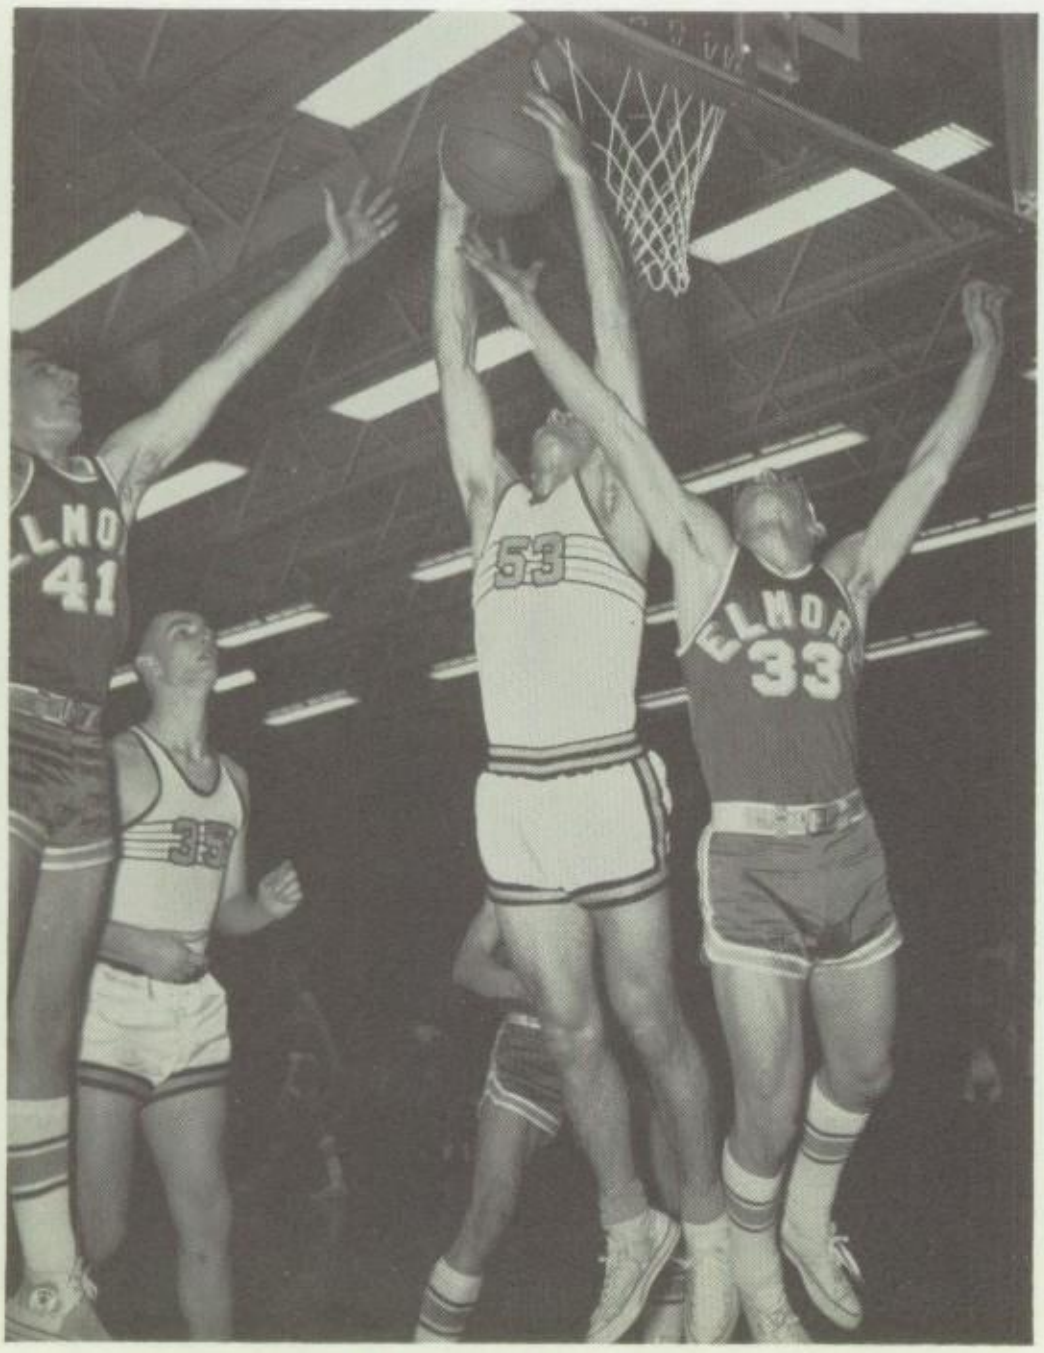
Jim Zender shoves home another two points on a driving layup.

The Saints were always supported by a fine representation of the student body.

Coach Hearden checks the hands of the starting five to make sure that the ball can't slip away.

Lakeside, 48-52

As in the case of Gibsonburg, after Saint Wendelin had soundly defeated them on the Saints' home court, a journey to the Lakeside gymnasium ended in disaster. A close, uncertain game all the way, the spectators found themselves tensely perched on the edge of their seats during the entire game. High scorer of the evening was George Welly who swished 16 points through the nets.



Jim Zender (53) pulls down another rebound from in between two Elmore players while Wade Oberle (35) looks on.

Carey, 58-60

The Saints journeyed to Carey and found that they had a red-hot team on their hands. Time after time the Blue Devils pumped in long outside shots that astonished everyone in the gymnasium. However, the Mohawks had a few tricks up their sleeves and continually the fans would see Mike Faber fire a blazing pass down to Jim Zender who was conveniently waiting under the Carey basket, while the Carey players would be looking around trying to figure out what had happened. High for the night was Jim Zender with 21 points.

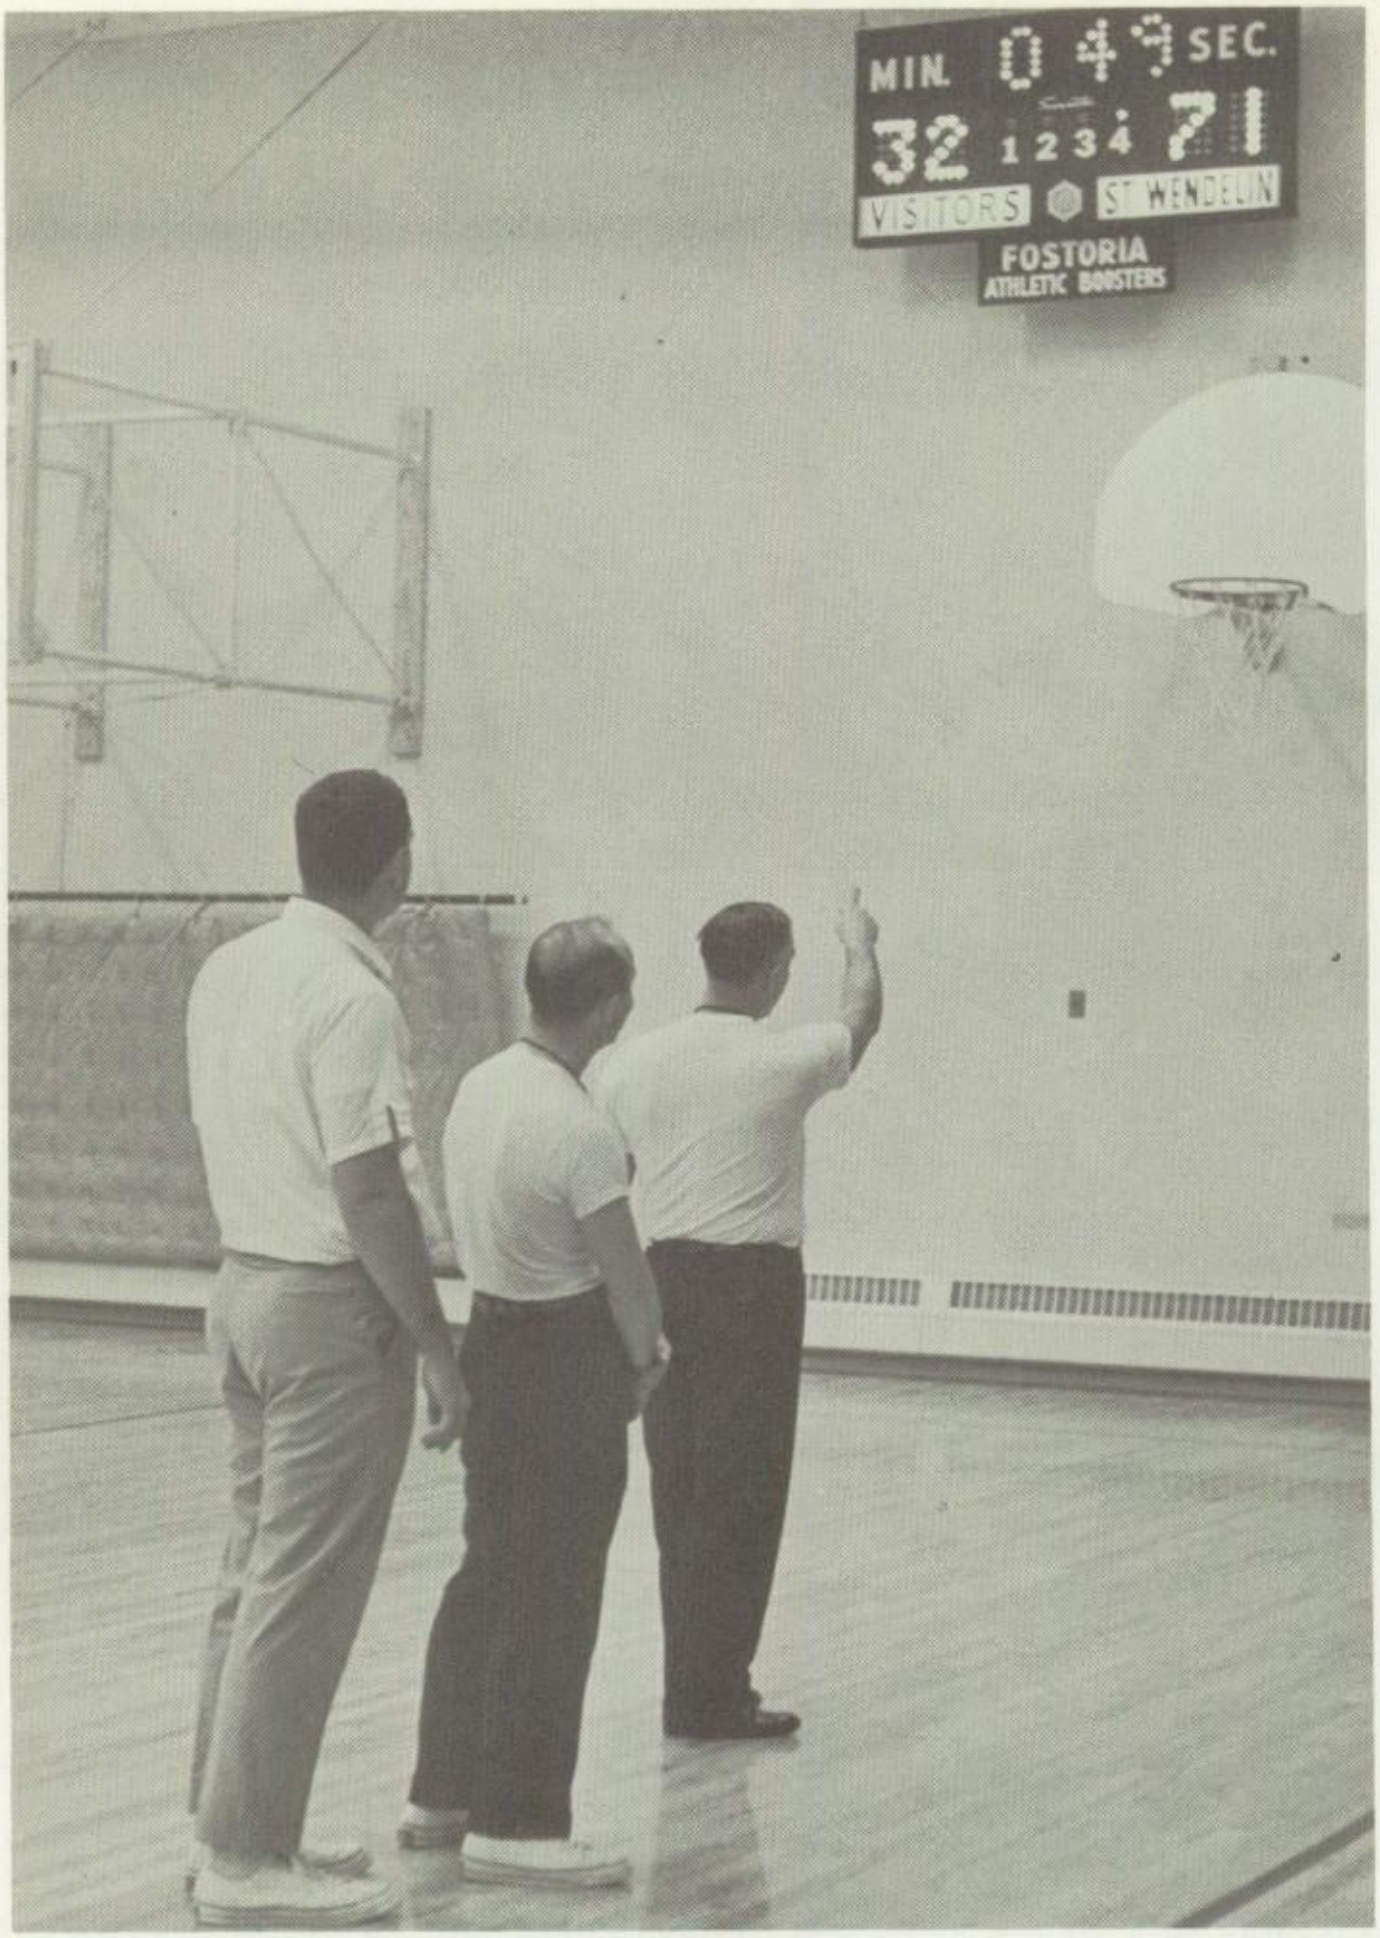
Wade Oberle rams in another two points for St. Wendelin.

York, 58-76

On the road for the third straight game, the Saints traveled to York. The highly-rated York proved to be too much for the Mohawks. York led by a considerable margin at halftime, but the Saints kept plugging away and did manage to narrow the difference through the closing minutes. Scoring honors were taken by Wade Oberle with 19 points.

Elmore, 50-47

The Saint Wendelin Mohawks ended their regular season with an upset victory over the same Elmore club that handed them a severe defeat only a few games previously. A tense crowd watched the Saints battle Elmore to a tie 25-25 score at halftime. The Saints went on to out-score Elmore in the third and fourth periods, and thus ruin Elmore's chance for a Seaway Conference Championship. Jim Zender played one of the most outstanding games in his career and took scoring honors with 25 points.



Coach Herman points out to Head Basketball Coach Hearden and Freshmen Coach Jacques the kind of score not to expect with control ball.

Sports have always played a very important part in the life of Saint Wendelin students. Every year Saint Wendelin has been a top flight competitor in all phases of athletics, whether this be on the hardcourt or on the football field. The excellence of Saint Wendelin teams is not only due to the masterful coaching and to the superb condition of the boys themselves, but it is due to the realization of the proper position athletics play in regard to the physical, mental, and emotional development of high school students. Many people have a constant fear that athletics tend to take a predominant position in a high school, so much in fact, that the academic program is overshadowed by the sports program. However at Saint Wendelin, this is far from the case. High on the list of great athletes Saint Wendelin has produced, we find a bountiful array of some of the most outstanding scholars. Scholastic achievement goes hand in hand with athletic accomplishment. The intense training and the rigorous mental and physical discipline of athletics well prepare a student for the difficult task of mastering the required intellectual pursuits, while at the same time providing an outlet for the emotional stress generated by hours of concentrated study. Truly then, athletics do play a very vital and necessary part in the curriculum of any high school. St. Wendelin is proud of its athletic accomplishments to be sure; but, moreover, it is proud of the young Catholic men that have grown to maturity in the scope of St. Wendelin's athletic program.
